Saltwell News

By Mrs. Jill Mattox

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle attended the funeral of Roscoe Bedford at Berry last Saturday. He had the Harrison County Hymn Sing on WCVN Radio for around forty years. His children and grandchildren gave talks at his funeral and violins were played.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Fryman very much enjoyed the Kentucky Jamboree at Georgetown on Saturday night, especially the singing of Dean Weddle and Mike Fryman, and the tremendous talent of Jerry Galbraith on the saxophone.

Mrs. Phyllis Brady enjoyed the very inspiring service Sunday afternoon at the Indian Creek Baptist Church. It included the candlelight communion service taken right from the manger.

Mrs. Bobby Brady enjoyed the Paris Christmas Parade on Saturday afternoon, having several relatives in it.

Edward O'Neal and others visited Bobby Brady at the farm last week.

Our community extends sympathy to the family of Mr. Earl F. Eckack who passed away on Tuesday. The funeral was held on Friday with Bro. James Gaunce as speaker and burial was in the Saltwell Cemetery with military rites.

Mr. Bob Kenny of Covington visited with Mrs. Gladys Kenny on Monday and also accompanied her on a visit to the doctor.

Mrs. Ramona George visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollar.

Mrs. Nellie Gaunce was moved from the Nicholas County Hospital to the Johnson Maters Nursing Home last week. She is improving slightly.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Mattox and children enjoyed the Nicholas County Parade on Saturday night.

Jonathan Mattox spent Saturday night with Phillip Irvin of Blue Licks.

Sunnyside Homemakers

The Sunnyside Homemakers met on Monday, November 20, 2000 at the home of Lavina McFarland.

Louise Calvert gave the devotional, reading the 100th Psalm and then led in prayer.

Five members answered roll call with naming three things we were thankful for. Each couldn't stop with just three.

Eleanor Bramel read the minutes of the last meeting. Phyllis Brady read her report.

Before our lunch or lesson we painted window suncatchers. Lavina showed more different type baskets she had made, and also Lavina had made each member a very cute pen cushion.

Instead of having an annual auction to help our club, each member gave $10. We were informed we may be getting a new member.

Sunnyside Club has lost several members in the last few years either by death or moving away, jobs or illnesses.

Two faithful members, Mrs. Anna Mae Gillispie and Mrs. Ruth Ishmael are deeply missed because of illness.

Phyllis Brady was the hostess for the Thanksgiving meal along with others' potluck.

At the end of our meeting, Phyllis Brady had two games won by Eleanor and Lavina.

The next meeting will be our Christmas meeting on December 19, 2000.
