9 years to put man on the moon. 9 seconds to put your child here.

"As Neil Armstrong stepped off that ladder onto the surface of the moon, I look back over my father and I have never been able to express in words. When he leaned forward on the edge of his old recliner, I could see his face fill with wonder, pride and awe. As I grew older, I often thought of how younger generations would never have an appreciation for what that moment meant, simply because they never experienced it. But last summer, as my family toured the U.S. Space and Rocket Center in Huntsville, I caught a glimpse of my 10-year-old's face. As she stood at the base of the monstrous 365-foot Saturn V rocket, I saw the same look in her eyes that I had seen in my father's 30 years earlier.

The U.S. Space and Rocket Center - One of the many things that makes Alabama ALABAMA special.
