Local youth to compete in Simmental National Classic

Brandy L. Graves, a member of the American Junior Simmental Association (AJSA) from Carlisle, will compete in the 2000 AJSA National Classic XX being held July 16-21, in Stillwater, Oklahoma at the Payne County Fairgrounds.

Over 300 junior members, representing 29 states from Vermont to Washington will be participating in a variety of beef industry-related competitions. Members, divided into novice, junior and senior divisions, have the opportunity to develop and showcase their skills in a number of cattle related categories.

The National Classic gets underway on Monday, July 17th, with the arrival of cattle and contestant check in, followed by the interview competition, public speaking, and advertising and promotion event. On Tuesday, members will find themselves busy with the sales talk and showmanship contests. The judging contest, sire summary and herdsman quizzes, and beef bowl will all take place on Wednesday. On Thursday, the cattle show will begin at 8:00 a.m. The National Classic will conclude on Friday at 6:00 p.m. with an awards ceremony, followed by a 9:00 p.m. dance. Other extra-curricular activities on the schedule include a volleyball tournament, a kick-off social event and cookout.

Admission to the National Classic competition is free of charge and the public is welcome to attend.

Headquartered in Bozeman, Montana, the American Simmental Association maintains the breed registries for the Simmental and Simbrah breeds of cattle. The organization has nearly 11,000 active members, including close to 5,500 juniors.

Saltwell News... by Mrs. Jeff Mattox

Rev. and Mrs. E.H. (Buddy) Gaines of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida visited with Mrs. Bobby Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollar, Mrs. Gladys Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. David Earlywine, Christy Fuller, Stephanie Cole, and son Ethan of Millersburg and also enjoyed supper with the Earlywine's. Rev. Gaines delivered a very inspiring message at the Headquarters Church on Wednesday night. He spoke of the many churches which he had helped to get started, his work in the missionary field and his work here at the Headquarters church where he started.

Bob Kenny of Covington spent Saturday with Mrs. Gladys Kenny. He also visited with Gary Hollar.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Glass enjoyed a cookout at the home of Roger Livingood and Jennifer Lynn on Saturday. The gathering was held in honor of Wesley Livingood who has joined the services and will be leaving on Wednesday, July 5th.

Amanda Mattox, Melody and Linda Herrington , Megan Hatton and Heather Murrell travelled to Kings Island in Ohio on Tuesday. They also spent the night at a hotel there and enjoyed the day Wednesday at the park before returning home.

Mrs. Fred Hollar spent the day on Friday with Mrs. Dorothy Ellis of Cynthiana.

Mrs. Jeff Mattox and children enjoyed a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson of Fisherville, Kentucky on Sunday. More than 60 family members attended the reunion and enjoyed a lovely meal, fishing, volley ball, a hayride and fire works that evening. Everyone enjoyed the day together.

Mrs. Catherine Hollar a patient of the Nicholas County Nursing Home was moved to UK Hospital, Lexington, several days ago. She remains very ill at this time.

Ashley Ford daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Ford of Cynthiana underwent surgery on her foot Wednesday at UK Children's Hospital in Lexington to remove a large wooden splinter. She is recovering well.

Mr. Jeff Mattox and children enjoyed a cookout at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ruddell. A large group of family and friends enjoyed the meal and the children also enjoyed horse riding.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady dined at Kountry Kettle in Owingsville on July 4th and enjoyed last night of the Owingsville horseshow, which is one of the bigger shows in Kentucky. Carroll Doyle won first place in the two year old walking horse class out of thirteen. Also at the Ewing Horseshow on Saturday night, the Carroll Doyle Stables and Terry Doyle Stables showed several times with Ashlie Doyle winning a first place and Carroll two first places, one being in a class of sixteen.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle, Jeff Doyle and children were among the very large crowd attending the Doyle Reunion on Sunday at the Legion Hall at Paris. One of the highlights of the day again was receiving the Doyle Memorabilia Book which contains many happenings in the big Doyle families throughout the year. This years "Feature Story" was on Charles and Shelby Doyle and also a nice write up on Wilfred Owen Doyle Jr.

Mrs. Phyllis Brady enjoyed the "Gospel Sing" on Sunday night that starts off the Harrison County Fair. There were around twenty singers or groups that sang to a capacity crowd there in the big barn building. Some churches call off their night service to attend.

Mr. Junius Kenny of Louisville and Mrs. Elsie Kenny of Decatur, Illinois spent the week with Mrs. Gladys Kenny and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kenny, Meryl Hollar and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollar were Sunday supper guests of Mrs. Gladys Kenny.

A group of around 75 members of the Hamilton family gathered at the home of Mr. Layne Hollar and Lois Mitchell for their annual family reunion Sunday. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon together and a wonderful meal.

Mrs. Jeff Mattox underwent surgery on Friday to remove hardware from her right arm as a result of an injury she suffered several months ago. She returned home on Friday night and is recovering well. Mrs. Anna Stodghill of Louisville spent the wiekend with the Mattox family and returned home on Monday.

Several members of the Saltwell Church enjoyed viewing the parade in Carlisle on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Sue Rule of Carlisle. Mr. James Rawlings was a participant in the parade marching with members of the Armed Services. The group also stayed to view the fireworks later that evening.

Jonathan Doyle spent last week at FFA Camp at Hardinsburg, Kentucky. This week Megan Doyle is at FFA camp there.

ACCORDING TO JIM LOVELL IT'S SOME OF THE BEST GOLF ON THE PLANET.
Jim Lovell, Commander, Apollo 13
Thirty years ago, I commanded what was to have been man's third landing on the moon. We didn't get to complete that mission—but the story of what happened on Apollo 13 captured the imagination of people all over the world.
Another phenomenon that's caught people's interest is the Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail. 378 holes of world-class golf on eight sites throughout Alabama. It's some of the best golf you can play in this galaxy.
When I'm playing golf on courses this great...Houston, I don't have a problem.
