Appalachian Celebration, 102 West First Street, Morehead, KY 40351
606-783-2204 www.kyfolkart.org
Sponsored in part by Morehead Tourism Commission

The week-long Appalachian Celebration is in its 24th year. It is an eastern Kentucky tradition commemorating our rich mountain heritage of music, book signing, crafts, storytelling, scholarly presentations, and folk art. Always held on Morehead State University's campus the last full week in June, it begins with the recognition of our living Appalachian Treasure and ends with a juried craft market showcasing 1000 artists.

The Opening Reception Appalachian Treasure Award Sunday, June 18 7 p.m. Fulbright Auditorium Baird Music Hall Morehead State University Admission: Free
Kicking off the week-long event on Sunday, June 18, will be presentation of the Appalachian Treasure Award. This award is given in recognition of an individual who is dedicated to promoting and preserving the cultural heritage of Appalachia. Mr. Tom T. Hall, singer and author, born in Olive Hill, Kentucky, is the 2000 Appalachian Treasure. Presenting this award will be MSU President Ronald G. Eaglin. Everyone is invited.
