

RENOVATIONS

3. In addition, any high school students who are currently attending in either system who do not fall under the above should also be allowed to continue to attend their present school.

4. After the one-to-one contracts begin, if there are any students from either system who wish to attend Nicholas County because of a parent teaching in Nicholas County should be allowed to do so at tuition free.

Conservaton meeting attended by local reps

Nicholas counties Stanley Alexander, Eugene Letcher, Jean Darrell, Evelyn and Julian Hammonds were among the attendees at the Area 5 Spring Meeting of the Kentucky Association of Conservation Districts, hosted by Pendleton County, held at Kincaid State Park. Steve Coleman, Director of the Kentucky Division of Conservation, gave an update on the Budget and Legislation, State Conservation Program, the Warm Seasons grasses Program and the Agriculture Water Quality Authority Workbook. A report was also given by Harold Woodlee from Natural Resource Conservation service. Jonathan Smith Area 5 Director resigned and Sanford Record, of Campbell County, was elected as the new Area 5 Director. Jane Thomas, of Harrison County, was elected as alternate.
