Baker inducted into Honor Society

Kathy Fish and Paul Baker
Beginning college can seem like a difficult and rather confounding experience. Thirty-seven inducted. The Alpha Lambda Delta national honor society that recognizes and awards academic excellence during a student's freshman year. Members are invited to join based on their grade point average for the first semester or the first year and remain active members through the sophomore year. This honor society strives to encourage superior academic achievement among students during their first year in institutions of higher education, to promote intelligent living and a continued high standard of living, and to assist men and women in recognizing and developing meaningful goals for their roles in society.

Local Cumberland College student, Paul Baker, of Carlisle, was among those thirty-seven inducted. The new inductees were presented with lapel pins by 1999-2000 Alpha Lambda Delta President, Bethany Andes, and with certificates by faculty sponsor, Ms. Kathy Fish, Cumberland College, located in Williamsburg, Kentucky, is a private liberal arts college in its 113th year of operation. Cumberland offers four undergraduate degrees in 37 major fields of study, 30 minors and nine pre-professional programs.

Johnson receives highest honor

Jimmie Barlow Johnson received nursing's highest honor recently when she was inducted into the Theta Tau Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International.

Sigma Theta Tau International is a 77 year old honor society that is essential to the Phi Beta Kappa of nursing. Its mission is to improve the health of people by improving nursing scholarship.

To be considered for membership one must demonstrate high academic achievement and leadership, be ranked in the top of their class, and be endorsed by two members.

Johnson will graduate from Eastern Kentucky University in December. She plans to continue her education at the Masters level with the goal of licensure as an Acute Care Nurse Practitioner.

Johnson is employed at the Center in Intensive Care. She is married to WLEX-TV Sports Director Gary Johnson. The couple has two sons, Sam and Max.

Jimmie is the daughter of Lottie Barlow of Cynthia and the late Gerald B. Barlow. She is the granddaughter to Beah Booth and niece of Kimball Booth of Carlisle.
