Pastor's Ben

By Rev. Richard Gardner, KY District Council Assemblies of God

Who are we to judge?

I would be very foolish today to believe that everyone in the community would like Richard Gardner. I used to try hard for everyone, but now I know that I was wrong.

Several years ago right here in a small community I learned one of the biggest and most important things of my life. I met a gentleman that had suffered a stroke and a heart attack and had recovered somewhat from his illness and I found myself next to him having lunch together. He began to share many of his life's experiences, like he had known me all of his life. He shared with me that his illness had been brought on by his own actions, which was that he had used to be an alcoholic that had helped him solve his problems and sickness.

But he was quick to share that he had turned to God and that he had brought it on himself and to his own family. There were many scriptures that he had brought it on himself and to his own family. There were many scriptures that he had brought it on himself and to his own family.

He also preceded in death by a daughter, Virginia S. Berry and by a grandson, Larry Ray Humphries.

Revival services were held on Friday, October 27, 2000 at Mather's-Gaunce Funeral Home by Rev. James Blair, Danny Berry, Bobby Holder, and Larry Humphries.

Contributions are suggested to Hospice of the Bluegrass.
