Local student executes Centre College drama production

David Flora of Carlisle was in the cast of Centre College's fall production, Scenes from Elizabeth. Flora played the role of Man in the Cell and the Albanian. Under the direction of Tony Hagg, the show performed on November 15-18 in Weigster Theater. The play is an allegorical and comic tale set in a very "modern" Renaissance Italy. It focuses on the ideas of artistic responsibility and political and religious conviction. But after his God encounter he became a man whose offtopic would become chosen rare of people. In each case where men met the Living God there was a change for the rest of their days.

Some won't believe that the God that created us all would even speak to us or reveal Himself to us to help, but they are missing the opportunity to walk with Him in personal revelation. Some want to draw near, but they never draw near enough to His throne room to get to know Him personally. I feel sorry for the person who never hears from heaven, never feels the Lord's peace, and never knows the friend that seeks closer than a brother. They have a form and a fashion, but the power of God is missing from their lives. They may even go to church, talk, the religious talk, and the religious songs, and throw in a buck now and then in the offering, but there is no real relationship with Him. They never lead others to the Lord because they don't really know Him.

We are divided today, and confusion is all around us. Only a word from God Almighty will comfort our hearts and keep our minds. Prozac is the second leading prescribed drug in America.

God encounters...

Does God like some places better than others? We know that He is omnipresent, that is everywhere at once, but He chooses some places where He would show Himself and His glory. I call this a special visitation a "God Encounter". When people have "God encounters, they are never the same. There is something about being in His holy presence that causes us to be changed. Moses was never the same after he had seen God's presence in the burning bush. The Apostle Paul had one such encounter on the road to Damascus and he was changed. Jacob had a God encounter when he was coming back home after many years of being separated from his people. Each time there was a special visitation from God there was a changed life as a result.

Wednesday, November 29: 29-hamburger, french fries, lettuce, tomato, pickles, onions, fruit, milk, tea, lemonade.
Thursday, November 30: potato bar, chili, cheese, chives, chips, onions, bacon bits, olives, salsa, sour cream, pasta salad, pickle spears, fruit, milk, tea, lemonade.
Friday, December 1: spaghetti with meat sauce, tossed salad, garlic toast, fruit, milk, tea, lemonade.

Flora of Carlisle and is a graduate of Nicholas County High School. Weigster Theater is a part of the Norton Center for the Arts, the regional performing arts center that annually brings to Centre College a series of important musical groups, Broadway shows, individual performances and other works from the performing arts.

I pray that you will have a heart that isn't satisfied with the things of this world, but that you will long for a relationship with the one who brought you into existence. He has always longed for a relationship with you. Won't you fulfill His desire today!

Learn To Love Your Leftovers
[INAPS]-Don't let the thought of leftover turkey put you in a foul mood. You can turn it into a delicious new dish while barely ruffling your feathers.

One of the top ways to make the most of what's left of the bird is in a pot pie. Fortunately, even people who are lactose intolerant or are avoiding milk and dairy products for other reasons, can enjoy a creamy, delicious turkey pot pie made with a milk alternative.

Vitamin 100 is a non-dairy liquid that provides B-vitamins riboflavin and thiamine as well as calcium, but is low in sodium and cholesterol-free. Because it's made with soy, it provides plenty of nutrition without the soy taste many people say they find distasteful.

Here's how Vitamin 100 can help you make your leftover turkey into a marvelous meal as easy as pie:

1 1/2 cups vegetable oil
1 cup chopped onion
15 cups self-rising flour
1 1/2 cups cooked cubed turkey
8 oz. package frozen mixed vegetables
1 cup non-dairy margarine
1 cup Vitamin 100

Preheat oven to 450°. In a large skillet, sauté onion in oil; add 1/2 cup of flour, and stir in broth until smooth. Add turkey and vegetables. Pour into a 2-quart casserole dish. Mix together margarine and remaining flour with a pastry blender. Add Vitamin 100 and mix until a dough-like texture. Roll on a floured surface to 1/4" thickness. Shape to fit top of casserole dish and place on top of turkey mixture. Bake at 450° for 15 minutes until crust is golden brown.

6 to 8 servings.
