College-bound students and their families invited to attend free financial aid workshop

Area high school students and their families are invited to a free workshop on planning and paying for college, on Saturday, September 9, 2000 at 9:00 a.m. at the Tates Creek High School, 1111 Centre Parkway in Lexington.

This program will give students and their families information to help them with one of the biggest hurdles facing college-bound students, paying for the college or university of their choice.

Congressman Ernie Fletcher is the honorary co-host of the event.

Students and their families will learn about applying for and qualifying for aid.

JACKETS from front

Hill took a 34-yard screen pass from Fryman into the endzone for the Jackets lone score in the second quarter. Junior back Seth Saunders ran for the two-point conversion, 27-0, wow!!

After the break, Saunders jumped in for six from,a yard out in the third and Fryman's kick made it 34-0, sting!!

Hill tallied his second score of the daughter on a 24-yard gallop, still in the third quarter. The kick failed but it was now 40-zip, yeowww!!

Junior running back Eric Earlywine's 24-yard bolt was the final score for Letcher's bunch and gave the guests the final 46-0 margin — and sent Louisville Western back to Derby City!!

As the monstrous wins mount, the Jackets don't have time to gloat,or look back.

According to the players, each time they suit up for practice, their concentration is focused on one just one week at a time.

"I guess we just take it every Friday night," Hill said of the Jackets' game plan. "We don't look ahead, regardless of who we play — we just look to that week, because anybody can beat you."

Nicholas County travels up the road to face Fleming County in Flemingsburg Friday night. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

ABOUT TIME from front

refrigerator doors and being sent to out-of-town relatives. And I you add as much positive spin as I can — there's always something good to say!

As I become acquainted with all of the athletes and families in town, please come up and introduce yourself (and your son or kid) — it'll help with the coverage and my familiarity with Nicholas County Athletics. I'll be the one with a camera draped over my shoulder, a program in one hand and a reporter's note pad in the other.

I'll also be encouraging the readers of The Carlisle Mercury to submit any and all sports clips or ideas. From junior's game-winning basket to granny's under-par round of golf while on vacation. After all, this will be your sports page, about your kids, your community.

Take advantage of that and send me a note, a fax or give the sports desk a call. On that note, try to remember that I'll get to as many contests as I can. If I'm not there, it's not that I don't care about your kid and his passing ability or free-throw shooting percentage. I'm not there because I'm probably covering someone's else's future big-leaguer!

I have several years experience in the community newspaper/sports-writing arena and I have my journalism degree from the University of Kentucky — that official stuff has never been more than pieces of paper on a wall to me, but some of you will like to know that I can string a few sporty words together.

I look forward to time on the ball fields and in the gyms in Nicholas County, especially with the extraordinary enthusiasm I witnessed when I covered the 'Jackets in Lexington at the State Baseball Tournament this spring. You all have a lot to be proud of with your traditions, your facilities and your incredible student-athletes! I can't wait to get them into the paper!

See you at the game!

You can reach Denver Brown, regional sports editor at (606) 784-4116, at The Morehead News. Or at The Carlisle Mercury at (859) 289-2464. Please send faxes to (606) 784-7337 or (859) 289-7900
