use it leads to attitude because it leads to attitudes and actions based on conclusions that are preconceived, rather than information that is factual. Prejudice is usually associated with bigotry and hatred, but prejudice in itself is not necessarily bad. It can be now if we are It can be good, if we ar

It can be good, if we are prejudiced toward the right things and in the right way. The real danger is that we often let our emotions get in the way.

Some time ago, Mr. Robert, C. Howe, principal of the North Kansas City High School, was in Little Rock to school administrators and I had the privilege of being in the audience. During his speech he shared something he called "Written With Prejudice", and I enjoyed it so much I asked him for a randchildren. I believe v speaking: "Dear Teacher, Please find attached to this note one six year, old boy, much cleaner and quieter than usual and with new hair cut and blue jeans. With him go the prayers of his mother and father. He's good at creating airplanes and chaos, very adept at likes peanut butter, horses and his shirt tail out. He is allergic to baths, bedtime, taking out trash, and coming the first time he's called. He needs to be taught and spanked, loved and spanked, and reminded to blow his nose and come straight home after school. After having him in your After having him in your After having him in your class and on your nerves, you may not be the same, but I believe you will be glat to know him, because while he strews books, toys and clothes, he has a special way of scattering happiness.
