

For what it's worth...

A matter of opinion

In regard to the phone calls and letters that I have received about last week's column that I wrote...

It is my understanding that I have written those that are involved in the little league basketball...

In fact this is true than what they should be combined as one league again and someone get a handle on it...

Corrupt means to deprive, to taunt, to berate, to begin with errors...

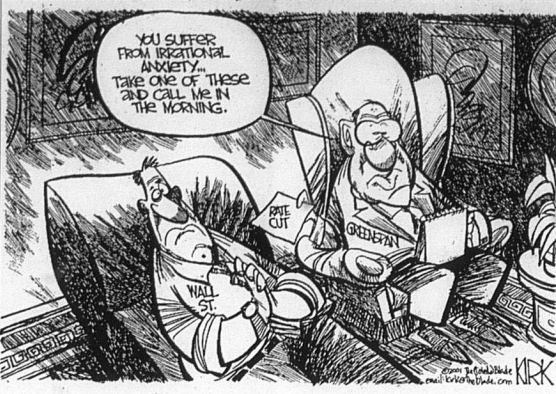

It was a good thing she has a caring parent or someone would have gotten by with breaking the rules...

As far as the program being run smoothly I'm sure in some instances it is...

My final two cents...

You can separate the programs and call them what you want...

The ad part here is we heller that parents need to get involved in their children's lives...

Letter to the Editor

Two entirely different organizations

Dear Editor: This letter is in regard to Elisha Insko's column...

Two entirely separate organizations, which are controlled by their own set of officers...

On the other hand, the cheerleading organization has been put in the middle...

Do religious principles influence our government?

Dear Editor: It is shame so many people who are fundraising...

of government funding of religion is either naive, misled, or intellectually dishonest...

Anyone who believes in the faith-based proposal...

everything us we seem to get around this way. However, this uniquely American penchant...

hand, if people have the means or the where-with-all as we say...

others calamity, I'm not talking about the person who takes a calculated risk...

credit problems with the credit experts. Mailing letters from home. No experience necessary...
