How strong is your faith?

I wonder if we were faced with the possibility of death our faith is would have the commitment to endure to the end.

Vespasian pleaded with them long and earnestly without prevailing upon a single man to deny his Lord.

Finally he said, "The decree of the emperor must be obeyed, but I am not willing that your comrades should shed your blood. I am going to order that you march out upon the lake of ice, and I shall leave you there to the mercy of the elements."

The forty wrestlers were stripped and then, falling into columns of four, marched toward the center of the lake of ice. As they marched they broke into the chant of the Roman: "Forty wrestlers, wrestling for Thee, O Christ, through the long hours of the night Vespasian stood by his confetti and water, but he was walled through the long night, there came to him fainter and fainter the wrodder's song.

As morning dawned near eye figure, overcome by exposure, crept quietly toward the fire in the extremity of his suffering he had renounced the song: "Thy name be glorified in the darkness came to him and he was walled through the long night, there came to him fainter and fainter the wrodder's song.

Vespasian looked at the figures cowering close to the fire. Perhaps he saw eternal light shining there toward the center of the lake. Who can say? But off came his helmet and clothing, and he sprang upon the ice, crying, "Forty wrestlers, wrestling for Thee, O Christ, through the long hours of the night Vespasian looked at the figures cowering close to the fire. Perhaps he saw eternal light shining there toward the center of the lake. Who can say?
