Kentucky Afield: June squirrel season

by Lee McClellan

In 1994, the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources (KDFWR) decided to take advantage of squirrel breeding chronology and implement June squirrel season. The season that year and implement June squirrel season. The season that year was limited to four wildlife management areas (WMAs) and the success of those hunts prompted the season to be expanded statewide in 1999. Although most Kentucky outdoors enthusiasts associate the month of June with weekends at the lake, the June squirrel season has been spring".

Garland explained that

Garland explained that hunter opportunity is about the same statewide. "The entire state has good squirrel hunting," he said. "The castern third of the state is predominately gray squirrels with more fox squirrels the further west you go. Gray
