ANDERSON FROM FRONT

University under legendary head coach John 'Sonny' Allen. In the past few seasons, the coach has looked out of the dugout and seen former players now sitting in the stands - as parents of current Bat-jackets! "That tells me I'm getting older," Anderson laughed. Another highlight was the fashion in how he won his pair of District crowns for Nicholas County.

"I won it my first year coaching when I was 32. And I won it again this year when I doubled my age to 64 - I don't think I can do that again!"

The Bat-jackets had to battle perennial power Harrison County throughout Anderson's career. The Thoroughbreds captured 22 of the past 23 37th District championships and a total of three State titles.

"I did have 17 runner-up finishes, though," Anderson added with another laugh. With all the success of recent seasons, the Coach said he'd be at the ball park in some form next season. And he said he would like to see his assistant Travis Sims get the nod as the new head coach. Sims was a super slugger in the early '90's and has been alongside Anderson for five seasons.

"I really hope Travis gets the job," he said. "He played for me and he was one of the most talented kids we've had. And now he's coaching with me."

"He's been a big help to me and he knows Nicholas County baseball - I just hope they give it to him," Anderson said.

He interrupts the interview to announce the major-league Cardinals have just tied up Cincinnati in a Tuesday night T.V. game. The man didn't just coach baseball, he lived it. And his mind is like a baseball statistics archive - he can recite scores and players' names from decades ago. Even his own 1-4 District win over Bourbon County as a senior in 1955.

TRAVEL FROM FRONT

As a coach he leaves the game with 579 career victories, all but about 30 coming with the Bat-jackets. He'll turn his attention to farming since retiring as a full-time teacher in 1996 and leaving the dugout and his bus driving route this year.

"I guess I was born to be a coach; after I was done playing," he said. "That describes me best."

So does legend.

Towns and rural areas lead the list of popular holiday destinations with 23 percent of the travel volume, followed by cities with 22 percent and oceans and beaches with 20 percent. Other top destinations will be lake/mountain areas, state/national parks and theme/amusement parks.

As North America's largest motorizing and leisure travel organization, AAA provides its 4.4 million members with travel, insurance, financial and automotive-related services.

FIREWORKS FROM FRONT

fire marshal's office. However, some of the vendors assume that the permit authorizes them to display and offer for sale to the public some items such as firecrackers, bottle rockets, Roman candles and others, which are illegal based on current law.

"Since 1996, 221 Kentuckians have been injured by misuse of fireworks," Manley said. "The tragic part of that figure is that most of the injured were not the actual fireworks abusers, but innocent bystanders and unsupervised children account for most of the injuries."

"I can't say it enough. The safest way to enjoy fireworks is to attend one of the many public displays offered throughout Kentucky."

Manley encourages people throughout the state to use caution and common sense when purchasing fireworks, adding that even innocent looking sparklers can cause injuries to young children.

"The Fourth of July is a day of celebration and pride for Americans," Manley said. "Please don't ruin it for you, your family and guests by shooting off illegal fireworks."

Golf Digest Ranks Our Trail Among the Top 50 Destinations in the World.

Golfers aren't the only ones who love to brag about their scores.

ALABAMA'S ROBERT TRENT JONES GOLF TRAIL

We love it when people say nice things about us. Golf Digest recently listed Alabama's Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail among the top 50 golf destinations in the world!

And in its current Places to Play ratings, Golf Digest gave most of the Trail's 21 courses 4 stars—and some even got 4½. Not bad when you consider that 5 stars only go to those once-in-a-lifetime courses. And all of the Trail's courses got top honors for service.

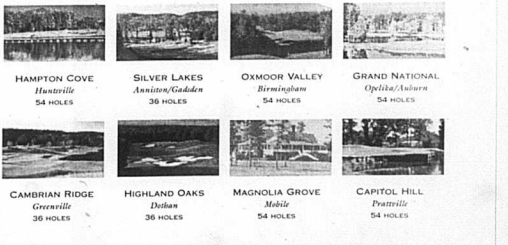

Frequent Flyer Magazine listed us among its top 10 trips in the world and The New York Times called us "...some of the best public golf on earth."

Golf Magazine listed The Senator course at our new Capitol Hill location among its top new courses in the country and The Legislator course in the top 25 newcomers. And wait until you see The Judge!

So, we hope you'll understand when, like all good golfers, we like to brag about our scores.

Call today to book your golf and hotel package and get ready for one of the best golf trips in the world.
