The willing servant

1661) once said, "Money is the best bait to fish for man with." If you should spend the next one hundred years earching for a room large nough to hold all the books that have been written about money and its related topics, you could not find it. In our modern society, money is something we all desire and something we must have to function in our day-to-day lives. The amount of money each of us needs, however, is determined by a wide variety of factors: the lifestyle we choose, where all the control of the cont responsibility, just to mention few. The Bible says that The love of money is the root of all evil." The Bible is true, out we must take note that it doesn't say that money is the root of all evil, rather it is the root of all evil, rather it is the lowe of money.

Herein lies the problem that millions of people face, that millions of people face, the personal lives. If you have a problem with money, either personally or in your home, I believe what Ifm going to you. It's my belief that many problems caused by money are due, by in large, by the problems caused by money are due, by in large, by the problems caused by money are due, by in large, by the problems caused by money are due, by in large, by the problems caused by money are due, by in large, by the problems caused by money are due, by the problems caused by money are due, by the problems caused by money are due, the problems caused and want. In addition to our physical needs, it's a new home, a vacation, a college goods and service to other more your product or service to other money.

Here's what I meant when

Here's what I meant when said that most mone problems are caused by the way money is perceived. Money, whether currency o Money, whether currency or coin, is a tangible object. You can see it and touch it. Money is really a willing servant. It's what we use to serve us and that's really all it is. When we permit it to become more than that, it then becomes an emotional issue and emotion is not tangible. We can't see and touch our emotions. It's like the wind. The money that See SERVANT on 5

For the past few years, Attorney General Ben Chandler has made it possible for the underprivileged children attending the Kentucky Sheriffs Boys and Girls Ranch to each take home free designer clothing. On June 8 in Georgetown, Kentucky, Chandler gave 576. Kentucky Sherriffs Boys and Girls Ranch, to distribute to each child attending camp this year. ear.
The items were seized by the Attorney General's Office of Financial Integrity and Sheriff Bobby Hammons of Scott County as a result of the conviction of three Georgetown flea market endors.
