Pastor's Pen
by Darrell Seldon, Carlisle Assembly of God Church

The scriptures tell us our days are numbered, and we are to be ready to meet our Lord. The Bible tells us that death is very certain. Death comes to all of us rich, poor, young, old, male, or female. Death is no respecter of color, of skin, creed, religion, country, or vocation in life.

It also says life is like a flower or grass that grows up in the morning and in the evening is gone.

The scriptures also remind us that we are eternal beings. Death is not the end. We will either spend eternity with Christ or we will spend eternity with Satan.

The choice is ours to make and we are to make this life. With life being so short we must make that decision as soon as possible. There are no second chances.

Saltwell News

By Mrs. Jeff Mattox

Mrs. Phyllis Brady attended the funeral of Mrs. Naom Snapp at Drake Funeral Home, Christiansburg, on Saturday morning and burial cemetery. Dana Doyle was the photographer.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cameron (Jadwiga Adams) of Carlisle on the arrival of their first child, a son, Seth Adams Cameron, April 25, weighing 6lb 12 oz. He was christened on Sunday morning at the Parish church of the "Town and Village School of Dances" at Paris, A very large crowd attended the performance of around 25 acts in a variety of dances and songs.
