to garcease the participation in the food drive. Each classroom had been given a construction-paper turkey and for each item donated, a feather will be given to add to the turkey. The class with the fanciest feathered turkey receives a popcorn party.

Because the students did so well, it was decided that all 800 Nicholas Elementary students deserved to have the popcorn party, but there weer classes recognized for their efforts.

In the K-4th grade, Miss Darbro's class shined and there was a tie for the 5-8th grades with Miss Curran and Miss Martin's classes.
