used his foot to snap the thing back into place.

After tow or three more dislocations over the next ear or so I had surgery. Dr. ugene Parr used what looked like a huge wood screw to relocate and fasten ome bone and muscle, and after about six months of recuperation the shoulder was good as new.

I did have to quit shooting left handed hook shots on the basketball court, but that was not a major sacrifice, and the shoulder held up flawlessly for 23

I'm not saving how I did

But six months later. I played golf, and played well enough to justify the purchase of a new set of clubs to replace my 10 year old woods and irons. The old woods and frons. The first time out, the graphite shafts and oversized heads allowed me to hit a golf ball about 20 to 30 yards farther off the tee, enough to convince me to play in the annual Morchead-Rowan County Chamber of Commerce golf outing. That Monday dawned cold and blustery, then got worse. It's tough trying to blow your nose, thay some fingers, and shiver, all while
