

SEPTEMBER FESTIVALS

There's something for everyone during the festivals in September. Arts, crafts, music, food, carnival rides, flea markets...and much more make September a great month to enjoy Morehead and Rowan County.

2nd Annual WoodFolk Fest

September 8, 2001
Rodburn Hollow Park

Morehead's newest festival, the WoodFolk Fest offers craft demonstrations, musical entertainment, and great food. WoodFolk Fest is sponsored by the Kentucky Folk Art Center. For more information, call (606) 783-2204.

Poppy Mountain Bluegrass Festival

September 11-15, 2001
Poppy Mountain

The largest traditional bluegrass festival in the United States is featured right here in Rowan County. The best in bluegrass music, plus a great selection of food, crafts, and other vendors make this festival one you won't want to miss. For ticket information, call Poppy Mountain at (606) 784-2277.

Rowan County Harvest Festival

September 14-16, 2001
Kroger Center

One of Morehead's premier festivals, the Harvest Festival features carnival rides, craft and food booths, music and a flea market. Join us during this fun-filled weekend as we celebrate the harvest season.

Cave Run Storytelling Festival

September 28-29, 2001
Twin Knobs Beach

Now in its third year at Cave Run Lake, the Cave Run Storytelling Festival is gaining a reputation of excellence among festivals of its type in the region. Come out and hear nationally known storytellers, plus enjoy the scenic beauty of Cave Run Lake. For ticket information, call (606) 784-6221.

For more details on festivals and special events in our area, call The Morehead Tourism Commission at (606) 784-6221.

*I trust in Nature for the stable laws
Of beauty and utility. Spring shall plant
And Autumn garner to the end of time.*

Robert Browning (1812-1889)
A Soul's Tragedy, Act 1.
