Fazolli's plans fund raiser for disaster relief

Fazolli's Italian Restaurants will conduct a major nationwide fundraiser Sept. 23-30 to benefit the American Red Cross, with proceeds earmarked for disaster relief to victims and families of the tragic events in New York, Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C. The benefit will take place in nearly 500 participating Fazolli's restaurants in 32 states. During the fundraiser period, Fazolli's will donate $1 for every guest who orders the All You Can Eat Spaghetti Dinner at the regular price of $3.99. Fazolli's estimates that more than $100,000 could be raised nationwide based on normal fund raising patterns.

Kuni Toyoda, President and CEO of parent company Seef Restaurant Group, expressed his wish for this effort. "All of us at Fazolli's feel a deep need to help in this time of crisis, and this is a substantive and meaningful way to demonstrate our sympathy and support, as well as symbolize the resiliency and spirit of America," Toyoda said. Donations will also be available inside restaurants to collect additional funds for the Red Cross, Fazolli's officials said.
