first inning. But Sims' bunt backed. "I told 'em to play like it was 0-0," the Bat Jacket skipper said. "And then we kind of chipped away at them. And Lee kept throwing strikes." Tuesday night, the boys in black and blue blanked the Royals in Carlisle, 10-0, in five. Seth Saunders and Lee Earlywine both send long-balls out of the park to power the offense. Saunders and Darrin Herrington had part of the game as hits, but the Jackets are rolling, and they're getting the pitching, the hitting and the defense. "The more we get to play, the better off we are," Sims said of the learn-as-you-go approach. "Early on, we were concerned with our inexperience but we're clicking pretty well." The Jackets host Paris tomorrow (Friday) and they go to Estlin on Saturday.

year through letters and that he was looking forward to hanging out with them all day Saturday. "Mt. Sterling is my favorite city," Sumpter told the crowd before the movie. Employees of the cinema held ropes as a makeshift barricade to keep the crowd under control. "It's times like this that makes this job worthwhile," Tenth Frame employee Casey Stamatias said.

Before the first screening, which was sold-out, Sumpter spent time talking to and signing autographs for his fans. Sumpter was also given a key to the city by the mayor of Mt. Sterling. A round of applause and loud cheers, from the standing-room only crowd in the 148-seat theater, accompanied the sight of Sumpter's name on the big screen. After the movie, Sumpter signed autographs and had a bowling party for all of his friends. Sumpter trained in Lexington and was named the International Model and Talent Association's Pre-teen Male Model of the Year in 2000. From here Sumpter has made a commercial for Disney and appeared on the TV shows E.R. and Raising Dad. His next project is the feature film Local Boys, directed by Danny Glover.

Sumpter says his recent success hasn't gotten to his head though. "I will never 'Go Hollywood' - I'm staying Kentucky," Sumpter said. Look for a full review of 'Frailty' next week.

Sumpter shared the night with his good friends Joe Rogers, Phillip Berryman, Evan Rose, Chris Carolin and Tyler Carolin.

Tenth Frame Cinema rolled out the red carpet, literally, for the premiere of Sumpter's feature film debut, Frailty.

time we play," Coach Storie said. "But we still have to eliminate that one inning where we just seem to go crazy. We seem to have one inning a game where we make two many mistakes and give a team too many runs." The Lady Jacket boss complimented Rowan County's All-Area pitcher, Laura Miles and her speedy delivery. "She's a good pitcher. We had a few opportunities and we got some good looks from the plate," he said. "But she got them out of trouble when we had runners on base."

Nicholas County had five hits in the game to 13 by the 8-1 Lady Vlijting. Junior (Thursday).

Show Mom You're A Blooming Genius

(NAPS)—Mother's Day has been a United States tradition since 1908 when a special church service was held at the request of Anna Jarvis to honor her mother, a Sunday school teacher. Because her mother was fond of flowers, especially carnations, Ms. Jarvis gave a carnation to each person present in honor of her Mother's Day. The fresh, fragrant, vibrant gift of flowers or plants has always been one of the most widely appreciated gifts associated with any special occasion. According to the experts at 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, some of the favorite plants preferred to American moms include gerberias, mini roses and azaleas. Topping the list of favorite flowers are lilies, gerbers, daisies, and roses. That florist also suggests a few steps you and your mother should take to care for those beautiful blooms. To arrange the flowers, fill a deep vase with lukewarm water, then mix in the floral preservative provided by the florist. Remove all leaves from the stem that would fall below the waterline in the final arrangement, as they may promote bacterial growth. Keep cut flowers and arrangements looking fresh by adding warm water to the vase every day. Always keep the vase full and change the water every three to four days. For maximum longevity, recut the stems every time you change the water. Place the vase in a cool spot away from direct sunlight, appliances and heating or cooling vents.

Unemployment extension available

The deadline for employers to pay first-quarter unemployment insurance (UI) taxes has been extended to May 15. The required UI taxes, along with wage reports, are normally due on April 30. The mailing of approximately 30,000 notices and forms that are sent to 70,000 employers was unexpectedly delayed. Department for Employment Services officials extended the deadline two weeks because of the late mailing. Employers should disregard the April 30 deadline that is printed on the notices. Employers may opt to pay UI taxes online by going to www.desky.org and clicking on "KEWES" in the "Important Notice" section. Employers who have not previously used the online system should call (602) 566-7979 for a password prior to using the system. This extension does not affect the timeframe for employers who wish to make a voluntary contribution to reduce their UI tax rate. The due date for voluntary contributions is April 23. A Proven Homegrown Leader

Now running for re-election to the Kentucky Senate, R.J. Palmer has proven himself a dedicated and effective advocate for our region:

- ★ He has kept his pledge of "partnership over partisanship" and is quickly becoming recognized as one of the brightest young leaders in the Senate.
- ★ He is the only Senate Democrat to be appointed by the Republican leadership to three influential bipartisan conference committees.
- ★ He has brought over $15 million home for roads, schools and improvements in our district.
- ★ He has fought to get tobacco settlement money out of Frankfort and into the hands of local farm families.
- ★ He effectively wrote and sponsored "Bryan's Law," named after a local boy who died from heart when left in a locked vehicle. This law makes it a felony when a child dies from being left unattended in a vehicle.
- ★ He stood up to corporate lobbyists and helped pass new legislation that helps protect our environment.
- ★ He has been elected twice to the House of State Representatives and once to the Kentucky Senate.
- ★ His family has lived right here in central Kentucky for five generations.
- ★ He is Kentucky educated with degrees from both Transylvania University and Eastern Kentucky University.
- ★ He is a frequent community volunteer, a little league coach and a prominent community banker.

Vote R.J. Palmer on May 28th... and send this dynamic homegrown leader back to the Kentucky Senate.
