MERRY CHRISTMAS! The perfect season is a perfect time to reflect on the past year and all the good things that have happened to you. People that have truly enriched our lives. Moments that have truly made us who we are.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, After helping to insure that thousands of Kentuckians are now homeless, by the hundreds of thousands, the "no rich person left behind" program, Rep. Geoff Davis is sponsoring legislation for "Homeless Emergency Assistance."

The parade featured floats, emergency vehicles, tractors, buggies, horses and the Nicholas County High School Marching Band.

ing. Miller accosted him as he was walking along Main Street near the Pool Hall of H.T. Burgess. Walker said Miller was drunk and then made a motion as if he was reaching into his pocket for a gun. Miller pulled his .32 caliber pistol from his own pocket and fired five times, striking Miller with three rounds.

Nicholas junior varsity girls take road win at Menifee

A 30-point loss in their season opener left the Nicholas County junior varsity Lady Jackets feeling they had good thing to prove. And prove it they did with a 34-25 win over a good Menifee County team Saturday.

Nicholas junior boys fall to strong Pendleton County

The Nicholas County junior varsity Blue Jackets fell victim to strong Pendleton County in their season-opening loss that remains the Blue Jackets' only action on the year.

The boys' program is at a low point right now due to the transition of the new coaching staff. Cofer and his assistants are still working the kinks out of the program.
