Thoughts from... the Pastor's Study

Rev. Julian Hammond, retired Methodist Minister

The last time I wrote an article for the Mercury it was about Jesus' answer to His apostles when they asked Him to teach them how to pray.

trast between the few and the many, while Jesus was contrasting solitary praying in prayer. Praying groups need to be established in offices, factories, businesses, colleges, dormitories, homes and especially churches.

HINTON MILLS SINCE 1918 Serving Farmers. Christmas Specials. Country Hams, Case Knives, Bogs Insulated Bogs, Wolverine Boots, Key Insulated Bibs, Bird Seed, Deer Corn / Deer Block, Dog Food / Collars, Stoves & Heaters, Wood Pellets, Auromycin, Heat Tape, Power Tools, Stock Tank De-Icers.

Having said that I wish to share a few other ways Jesus taught us to pray. Jesus taught us to pray for the "Kingdom of God" when He said "The Kingdom Come".
