Dear Santa,
My name is Sadie Jo Bond. I am only 5 months so there aren't many things I can ask for this year because my Mommy has bought me so much already.
I have been an Angel since birth so I know I am not on what mommy calls the naughty list, ok ok with the exception that I spit my food at my mommy but my Papaw taught me how so I thought it must be alright.
Santa the things I want this Christmas are first please let the weather be nice for Christmas so I can go and see my great-grandma Gosney, next I would like for my Aunt Amy, Uncle Ben, cousins Antonio and Annalie to make it to Kentucky safely and without bad weather. I would like for my Aunt Carol, Uncle Matt and cousin Evan and my Uncle Michael to come and see me often. I would especially like all my family to be in good health this year (especially my mommy, Mimi and Pappaw because they take care of me). Oh yeah and one more thing, help my papaw be good so he doesn't get into trouble for teaching me bad habits like spitting food at my mom and sticking out my tongue.
Santa if you are in good with God which I know you, are because that is the whole reason for Christmas, could you please ask him to watch over my great-grandpa Gosney who I never got to meet but I am told I look like all the time, and my Great-Grandpa Bond who I got my middle name from.
Ok Santa now for the few things that I would like for myself: I would like a glow-in-the-dark, a walker because I want to be long before I will want to start walking, some, teaching rings because my gums have been aching badly, lately and basically anything that makes noise and lights up.
Love you Santa
God Bless Everyone,
Sadie Jo Bond
