Midday Red Hatters hold Christmas dinner

A new local ladies organization that is rapidly gaining popularity held their first Christmas dinner in Carlisle.

Nearly two dozen members of the daytime Carlisle-Nicholas County Daytime Red Hat Society members enjoyed their first Christmas celebration at Becky's and Tabitha's Beauties and at 118 East Main Street, Carlisle, Dec. 12. The comfortable atmosphere of the East Main Street location was amplified by the beautiful Christmas decorations that graced the interior of the otherwise elegant setting, and the ladies joined together for a group photograph around the Christmas tree before enjoying a delicious meal.

The social organization is a new entity to Nicholas County, but is growing rapidly. Becky Gum is the reigning Queen (the term Red Hatters use for their leader) with Linda Lavinle, assistant Queen.

"We started with seven members and then grew to 18 (two more ladies have recently joined to raise the number to 20) and we continue to grow," Lavinle said. "Many of our members belong to the daytime and evening group both."

The daytime Red Hatter members provide gifts for bingo activities at the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center located on Main Street and for the Johnson Mathers Nursing Home. "We very much appreciate everything the Red Hat ladies have done to help the seniors," Senior Citizens Center Director Carol Galbreath said of the organization. "They're a great group to work with."
