HOROSCOPES

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20 You have to strike a balance between your emotions and common sense, Aries. Unless you do so, impulsive actions will repeatedly get you into trouble.
VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22 The urge to procrastinate rears its ugly head, Virgo, but you won't be swept up by the temptation. You now know it's faster to just breeze through everything.
TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21 Deciding on a course of action may prove difficult for you, Taurus. While you can see all sides of the situation, you also envision all of the possible outcomes.
GEMINI - May 22/June 21 You've found luck in love, Gemini. Your current match is a keeper and the relationship will last long-term. If you're already attached, the fires of love will burn even more brightly.
CANCER - Jun 22/July 22 A friend in need could use a good shoulder to cry on this week, Cancer. Better turn off that cell phone or PDA and devote some attention to this person.
SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22 Caring for others gives you a warm and fuzzy feeling, Scorpio, even though they may think you're alluring and no substance. Volunteer your time this week.
SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21 This week, you hear what someone is telling you with an exaggerated level of clarity. The stars are making sure communication channels are wide open for this person.
CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20 Capricorn, this week you're in danger of giving into peer pressure, playing "follow the leader" in a sense. Resist the temptation to do so because it's a bad road to travel.
AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18 Your actions of late haven't been the most commendable, but you can balance them out with good deeds this week. Aquarius, for redemption, provide a helping hand to someone.
PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20 You are in control this week, but not entirely comfortable with this new role. Ease into it, and soon you will find you like the driver's seat.

GENERAL NEWS

Carlisle Cemetery Board releases financial summary

Members of the Carlisle Cemetery board have released the 2006 financial summary for the operation of the cemetery. It is published in legal form in this week's Carlisle Mercury. In a release from the board, the members said, the public's response to the sale of monuments and services has been most gratifying with net income of $11,500 compared to about $2,500 in 2005. The Cemetery Board notes with appreciation the generous donations of over $15,000 (compared with $12,000 in 2005) that enabled them to maintain a balanced operating budget of about $11,000 in 2006. This compares to a budget of about $96,000 in 2005. Expenses increase were mainly due to rental equipment for less disruptive opening and closing of graves, equipment maintenance, and grounds improvements as well as increased fuel and utility costs.

The board members emphasized that without donations from the public the cemetery could not meet operating expenses. For this reason board members have approved an increase in the price of burial lots and service fees effective July 1. This will permit more reliable budgeting and allow the use of more donations for long term improvements rather than for the day-to-day operations. A schedule of revised prices and fees will be published in the near future.

The overall financial statement shows over $12,000 in perpetual care trust fund compared to about $115,000 at the end of 2005. The Deposit Bank of Carlisle administers this fund at no cost to the cemetery. As required by Attorney General, 20 percent of each sale (currently $120) must go into this trust fund and only the interest, about $4,310 in 2006, can be spent cycle of poverty and crime. "This bill is just one small step to break the cycle," Gray said. The original version of the bill stripped the tip credit for employers and ordered that tipped employees be paid at least the state minimum wage, but Gray said those features were dropped in favor of a streamlined bill which only raised the rate and didn't affect other aspects of the wage law.
