Musicians, health care professionals recognized

Some talented area Bluegrass musicians, who have performed each week for the past three decades at the Johnson Mathers Nursing Home, were awarded Kentucky Colonelships at the health care facility June 28.

Two women who have helped prolong the lives of many area residents through their devotion to their professions in the field of health care were also awarded the honorary titles during the same impromptu presentation ceremony.

Bluegrass musicians entertain weekly at the Johnson Mathers Nursing Home. Several of them plus staff members were recognized as Kentucky Colonels.

Amy Robertson, a field representative for Gov. Ernie Fletcher, presented Kentucky Colonel certificates to Norman Price, his wife Martha Price, Albert Hopkins, William Golden and Sharon Beckett, amid applause and cheers from residents and guests of the health care facility during the middle of the musical performance.

"They play such beautiful music," Robertson said as she and John Cleaver, a member of the state Agriculture Board, sat and listened to the Bluegrass music that drifted through the crowded lobby.

Both also praised the two ladies that received awards, though they were not part of the musical performance.

"The community is very fortunate to have this group," Robertson and Cleaver said of the three musicians and two health care professionals. "And we want to acknowledge their service to the community."

Sharon Beckett is the activities director at the facility, and has been employed there for the past 33 years, and residents joined Robertson, Cleaver and others in praising her devotion.

Martha Price was awarded the Kentucky Colonelship for her devotion to Kentuckians while she was a professional nurse for 34 years at Harrison Memorial Hospital and L.W. Blake Memorial Hospital.

Price's husband of 22 years, Norman Price, a professional fiddler who has played with many Country and Bluegrass legends at such venues as Renfro Valley, was surprised to receive the award, as were his fellow performers.

Albert Hopkins, who has been playing the guitar and making wonderful music for the enjoyment of residents for the last 34 years, and William Golden, who has also graced the stages with musical legends including the Osborne Brothers and has been performing regularly with the group for nearly three decades at the nursing home, were honored.

"We're very blessed to have this group," Beckett said of the musicians. "They perform every Thursday."

Jewell Merrill, who was celebrating her recent 92nd birthday, danced through one of the songs with Beckett, and she glided easily across the floor of the nursing home's lobby as if she were a teenager.

"I really enjoy this," she said later.

"This is one of the best nursing homes in the state," Martha Price said, as she looked around the crowd and saw all of the cheerful expressions on the audience members as the band played.

Other musicians in the group; Dwayne Conn on the banjo, Glenn Thacker on guitar, Tommy Bledsoe, also on guitar, and Billy Dixon on the bass, were in perfect harmony and musical synchronization throughout the Faculty members to make home visits

School is set to start is less than a month, and Nicholas County teachers are out to get to know their students better. As a part of an ongoing effort to purposely make connections with students in their classroom, Nicholas County teachers will soon begin a new program of visiting students in the community.

Established last school year as a pilot project, the Nicholas County Board of Education recently adopted the program for all faculty.

Due to the overwhelming success last year, the program was recommended to the board as an effort for teachers to get to know students and their families outside the walls of the school.

As a Nicholas County teacher recently said in reflection of last year's visits, "I learned very valuable information about each student that helped me understand their needs better. All of the parents were supportive and interested in the program. Relating to students is so important when making connections with them and building relationships."

As part of this effort, Nicholas County teachers will be making contact with students between July 25 and August 1. During these short (five to 10 minute) visits, teachers will be introducing themselves and offering students and their parents, supply lists, bus routes, beginning of the year paperwork, as well as answering any questions.

In addition to teachers, the administration is so passionate about the program that they will also be going along on some visits.

As Greg Reid, Superintendent simply puts it, "Meeting our students and parents is not only a plus for us as educators but, it lets our students and parents know that we truly do care".

For more information about home visits contact Shawn Parrish, Principal Nicholas County Elementary and Middle School (289-3785) or Joe Graze, Principal, Nicholas County High School (289-3780).

Thoughts from ... the Pastor's Study

By Rev. Donald Riggs

The Faith Walk

Faith what is it?

Hebrews 11:1- Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Mark 11:22- And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. That whoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. (It don't say what you pray, it says what you say shall come to pass.)

(Mark 11:24-26- says get the sin out, and receive)

II Corinthians 5:6-8

6- Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7-(For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8- We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. (Confident=To have faith)

Romans 10:13-14, & 17

13- For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14- How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?

17- So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

(We have ears to hear and eyes to see, please use them.)

Mark 8:18- (Jesus said) Having eyes, see ye not? And having ears, hear ye not? And do ye not remember?

Ephesians 2:8- (Paul said) By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: (Faith is a gift from God, for He has given each of us a measure of Faith.)

Romans 12:3- For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

Hebrews 11:6- (For) But without faith it is impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. (Are we diligently seeking God?)

Matthew 5:6- (Jesus said) Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness" for they shall be filled.

Closing with Galatians 3:22 and 26-29

22- But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ must be given to them that believe.

26-For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27- For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

28- There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29- And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Invitation, If you are not a child of God, would you now believe and receive by faith the promise of God?

days performances.

Dixon, Beckett, Cleaver and others contacted the Governor's office about the musicians and Beckett's and Martha Price's devotion to the community.

"I had no idea I was going to receive an award," Beckett said. "I was certainly glad to see the others honored, but I was taken completely by surprise. Billy Dixon was behind that I bet, and of course he never mentioned a word about me receiving an award."

Dixon looked up from his bass as Beckett spoke and grinned, but then turned his attention back to the song he was playing.

As the band continued to play, a steady downpour of much-needed rain fell from the sky, and though several guests noted the rain, they kept their attention focused on the musicians and tapped their toes and clapped their hands as the wonderful melodies and precise notes floated though the building before fading amid the sounds of a soaking summer rain.

The old-time group, referred to by some as "Boy's Boys", and "The Kentucky Valley Boys" perform each Thursday at the nursing home.
