Cryoablation Therapy
The safe, non-surgical procedure that could be your answer to the problem of heavy bleeding.
If in 5 women suffer from heavy menstrual bleeding that can make them feel unable or unwilling to go about their normal activities. Many women avoid leaving home, find themselves unable to wear the clothes they prefer or they are limited in their social, athletic and sexual activities.
If you're one of the millions of women who live with heavy bleeding, these frustrations probably sound all too familiar. But you should know that now, you may be able to free yourself from these limitations simply, without pills and without surgery. Her Option® Cryoablation Therapy is a quick, one-time treatment that is safe, non-surgical and may be provided in the comfort of our office.
Contact the Women's Health Clinic to discuss your options for heavy bleeding treatment, including whether Her Option® Cryoablation Therapy is right for you.

This description prepared by J.D. Williams, Jr., L.L.S. 316."

Being the same property conveyed to Johnny M. Scott, Sr. and Carolyn Scott, no marital status given, and Johnny M. Scott, Jr. and Julie Scott, husband and wife, from Isaac J. France and Renee France, husband and wife, by deed dated November 13, 2000, and recorded on November 20, 2000, in Deed Book 106, Page 760, Nicholas County Clerk's Office.

Upon the sale of the above-described property, the purchase price shall be payable in cash. If the purchase price is not paid in full, the successful bidder(s) shall make a deposit of one-third (1/3) of the purchase price and give bonds with approved good and sufficient surety therefor for payment of the remaining part of the purchase price within thirty (30) days after the date of sale, said bonds to have the same force and effect as a judgment and to be a lien on said property and to bear interest at the rate of twelve (12%) percent per annum from date of sale until paid, which bond and accrued interest can be paid before maturity.
Said property shall be sold as a whole "as is" and free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and interests of the parties herein but shall be sold subject to:

(a) 2007 and subsequent years ad valorem property taxes which shall be paid by the purchaser(s);
(b) Legal highways, easements, restrictions and stipulations of record affecting said property, and all governmental laws and regulations affecting same;
(c) Any assessments for public improvements levied against the property;
(d) Any facts that could be disclosed by an accurate survey and inspection of the property.
(e) Any right of redemption which may exist.

The Court and the Master Commissioner shall not be deemed to have warranted title to any purchaser(s). Purchaser(s) shall be entitled to possession of the premises, and a deed will be delivered to the purchaser(s), upon full payment of the purchase price and confirmation of the sale and approval of the deed by the Court.
Following sale of the above-described property, the Master Commissioner shall promptly report same to the Court, and said report shall be held over for a period of ten (10) days for confirmation or exceptions. Anyone desiring to object or except to the sale shall do so by that time or be forever barred.
