In The Kitchen With Beth

Well I am back for another week. This week's recipe is going to be geared towards the fun of grilling. I watch the food network and starve myself for about 12-13 weekday mornings doing it. Since it has become spring, they have been doing the barbecue and grilling until I am ready for a road trip to some of the items for myself. But since a road trip is not feasible right now I just settled for making some grill items myself. This recipe is one of the simpler ones and should not take very long, however don't forget the extra time for it to marinate. This would be perfect to cook on a picnic with your friends, family and loved ones. Let us begin by getting the ingredients together.

1 Tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 Tablespoons, plus 1 teaspoon sweet chili sauce
1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 cup barbecue sauce
1/2 cup teriyaki sauce
1/4 cup soy sauce
2 Tablespoons orange zest

1 pound boneless pork tenderloin, cut into 1 inch cubes
1 large red pepper, cut into 1 inch cubes
1 large red/purple onion, cut into 1 inch cubes
1 Tablespoon, plus 1 teaspoon sesame seeds

1/3 cup butter or margarine
2 Tablespoon prepared mustard
1/4 to 1/2 tsp lemon pepper seasoning
2 teaspoon prepared horseradish

SWEET KABOBS

1/4 cup teriyaki sauce
1/4 cup barbecue sauce
1 cup orange juice
2 teaspoons orange zest

Anniversary

Walkers Celebrate 10th Anniversary
The Carlisle Methodist Church with a very good crowd. Everyone enjoyed the speaker, Charlotte Haney, with her people skirt, white blouse, neck scarf and oxford shoes, had everyone laughing, telling about how things were in the 1950s and 1960s and what you need for a small amount of money and how strict our parents were etc. It brought back many good memories. She spoke after the business part of the meal was catered by Michelle McDonald. Decorations and a display of arts and crafts were beautiful and everyone received a homemade KEAM 75th anniversary pin which all were celebrating tonight with the Happy Birthday theme.

Alberta Glass took granddaughter, Danita Livingood and sons to eat at K.P.C. on Sunday for Danita's birthday on Monday. John and Sheila Brady entertained a very large crowd on Saturday night with their annual "Big Roast". This year they had a theme of dressing like a Hillbilly. A few chose to do that and the winner received a prize of two cars of corn! (Because the pig wouldn't need them anymore).

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Walker
Jimmy and Sandra Walker were married on June 20, 1997, by the late Rev. Dorothy Shannon at Herrington United Methodist Church. They are members of Carlisle Christian Church and hope to spend many more years together.

Our communities extend sympathy to the family of Mrs. Evelyn Anderson. This family had lived near Headquarters years ago before moving to Carlisle.

The Barterville United Methodist Church had Rev. Ron Callahan, a T.V. Evangelist, for services Thursday, Friday and Saturday night this past week. He preached about "faith" and "healing".

Johnson Mathers Health Care had a reception for residence fathers and their children on Sunday afternoon in the dining room. Poems were read, refreshments served and beautiful shirts were given to the oldest, youngest and the father with the most children. Some of the children shared stories about their fathers, some funny and some sad. Two cakes were made by a cafeteria employee, one was decorated with an outdoor scene sports, hunting and the other with a relaxed beach scene, tropical island and palm trees.

There was punch that was made from papaya delicious and a beautiful orange color yellow and orange being the color theme. Rev. Julian Hammonds gave a message in the main lobby and gave gold stick pins with fish and a cross to each man there. The county homemaker's annual meeting was held on Monday night at
