Submitted by Cindy Watkins, Secretary

The Ellisville Homemakers met at the Extension office in Carlisle on May 11 for their tenth and eleventh meeting of the 2006-2007 year. President Kathleen Snapp, called the meeting to order. There were ten members and county agent, Kim Adams-Leger present. Phyllis Brady read, "What is a mother and 'Signs of Spring, 23rd Psalm" as devotional. Patsy Smoot gave treasury report. The club members present held a discussion on several upcoming events: 2008 State Meeting in Louisville, KY to host NVCN, National Meeting on July 19-21, 2007 in Lexington at Crown Plaza. Planned June 24th going to the Glitz in Woodford County on June 6. Farmer's Market is every Saturday.

International Buffet was Monday, May 21, 2007, at the Carlisle United Methodist Church. Annual Meeting was Monday, June 11, 2007 at the Carlisle United Methodist Church. Cultural Arts Camp will be in Jabez, KY on September 27-29. Cook books are still on sale at the extension office for $12 each. Nicholas County reserves send off of our troops lunch was on Saturday June 2, 2007. Nicholas County City Council meeting is Friday July 13 at 1:30 p.m. at the extension office. Bluegrass Area Officers Training was on June 22 at the Fayette County Extension Office. Summer feeding program started June 11. Patsy Smoot said grace fore lunch was served. Lunch by Earlywine gave lesson on "Jazz it up with Jewelry." The club made catbox bag covers for nursing home residents. The next meeting for the Ellisville Homemaker Club was held on June 6 at the extension office in Carlisle. This will be our outing and final day until August 2007. We need more homemakers for the upcoming year 2007-2008. Hope everyone has a happy and safe summer vacation. See ya in August to begin a very busy year. The Ellisville Homemaker club at the extension office in Carlisle on June 6 for the eleventh and final meeting day for the 2006-2007 year. The twelve members and two guests all met at the extension office parking lot at 9:30 a.m. to set out on our day of fun to Nonesuch, KY. We spent the day at Irish Acres Gallery of Antiques in Nonesuch. The building that houses Irish Acres Gallery of Antiques is a two story building that was built in 1906 and used until 1981 as an elementary school house. Then it was remodeled and turned into a 32,000-square foot antique palace, decorated from ceiling to floor and wall to wall on two floors. There are over 50 rooms in all to browse and look at as well to buy. The Glitz Restaurant located at the lower level of Irish Acres, is a beautiful dining room. Grapevines and flowers intertwine the walls and ceiling in twinkling candle lights, tiny bulbs and lamps in mirrors on the walls. It has a "glitz" black and mauve interior. They are famous for their "Nonesuch Kine" for dessert. The fourteen that met at Irish Acres Gallery of Antiques had a very wonderful meal, a nice day and a great trip. I recommend that if you've never been you don't know what you are missing. This is a wonderful day trip that everyone should take.
