

CANCER COALITION MEN'S HEALTH DAY™

Photos by Hank Bond

Above left, Amiee Hughes of Ahh Body and Soul Massage Therapy and Wellness Studio works with James Lowe during the event. Middle left, Julian Hammonds visits the WEDCO booth for a cancer screening, while below Janie Whitehead shares Diabetes education information. Top right, Cindy Hughes of Family Home Health Care Inc., works a display booth as does, Dr. Amy Mashburn, bottom, her son and staff members. The event is held annually to help share relevant information. PSA blood tests were also available as part of the event.

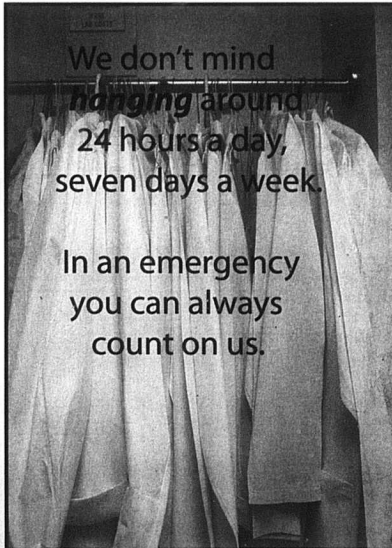

IN AN EMERGENCY
THE WORLD STOPS
AND WE START

When you're hurt, everything stands still. Except us. Our wheels are turning the minute you walk in the door - assessing how you're feeling, what's wrong and how to give you the best care possible. Through state-of-the-art technology and a medical staff with specialists board certified in ER medicine, we're here to respond, relieve and reassure. No matter what rolls through our doors.

9 Lyleville Drive, Paris KY 40361 • For more information, please call 859.587.3600 • Visit us at www.bourbonhospital.com

We don't mind hanging around 24 hours a day,
seven days a week.

In an emergency
you can always count on us.
