ADVICE TO A YOUNG FARMER

Build your house upon a rise

Make friends with your arms and thighs

Dig your spring below a pine

Plant a morning glory vine

Have your bedroom face the dawn

Have windows with no curtains on

Though fields lie ready by the score

Cut thickets down and make one more

Sleep an hour in the sun

Talk to your cows when the milkin's done

By all that's good, be much alone

Use no man's plow-horse but your own.

Plow as soon as the hyas peep,Sow before the crickets cheep

Never hope to rise in life

Until you have brought home your wife.

Never trust your corn to grow

Before you have a son, or so.

There is no rain that can match a mother

Their sons and their seeds will help each other.
