KEEPING FOR AN ORPHAN AMONG THE WHISPERING PINES

Heaven is A Lot Like Kentucky

And so it came to pass last week, dear reader, I finally found myself standing at the grave of Lt. D. Young...

have the United States flag placed in his right hand. That touched me and I found an even greater admiration for the man I had buried...

How unfair. I could do little more than stagger to the base of a nearby ancient pine and bury my face in my hands...

"Here at Jonesboro ended my service to the Confederacy and my experience as a soldier in the field. The next six months, which brought the war to a close, were spent by me in hospitals, which also came near bringing my earthly career to a close...
