ELECTION

of schools without bonding, but Nicholas County has been told it can't be bonded without being bonded. Will this be your policy if elected?

Beahar's Answer: My policy will be to make sure my partner will work with the schools and do what can legally be done. We will attack that problem and other problems we have with our schools.

Fletcher's Answer: No, we'll have a five-year study to bring all schools up to bond and we will have that done.

(4) What do you perceive as your opponent's greatest weakness?
Fletcher's Answer: He's part of a system of Frankfort insiders that have prevented counties, like Nicholas County, from growing.

Beahar's Answer: We have had four years of allied leadership. All of the corruption and scandals has paralyzed us in many ways and prevented us from moving forward and improving the quality of life for the citizens of Kentucky.

Beahar's Answer: I am going to set high moral and ethical standards and expect everyone that works with me to be held to those same high standards.

Beahar's Answer: Several new programs will be instituted to improve the quality of life for all Kentuckians. I want to extend our early childhood education and development so more children will become successful.

Fletcher's Answer: I'm going to get back on track. I'm determined to lead. Like when Abraham Lincoln was willing to do what was right for the country at a critical time.

Beahar's Answer: He has been our model for Unbridled Spirit.

(6) What is the greatest strength you believe the people of Nicholas County possess and what will you do to help them turn that strength into economic stability and growth?

Fletcher's Answer: Nicholas County folks have great values and a tremendous work ethic with an ability to advance jobs we've got to get more involvement with retraining and reemploy everyone that lost a job when Jockey closed.

Beahar's Answer: The people of Nicholas County, as well as the rest of Kentucky, have a wonderful work ethic and are willing to put in a full day's work. All they need is more opportunity.

(7) How do you intend to utilize the members of the Kentucky National Guard if elected? Will it differ from the current policy?

Beahar's Answer: I will give them all of the support that I can. The President and the state has been the first to tackle our active duty, but I will ensure that it can't be done without being bonded.

Fletcher's Answer: We've met the call for the War on Terror and our state has deployed over 81,000 Guardsmen. Kentucky has the best-trained soldiers in the National Guard.

Beahar's Answer: No, we'll have a five-year study to bring all schools up to bond and we will have that done.

(8) What will you do to provide security for our borders? I won't allow Kentucky to become a safe haven for illegal aliens.

Fletcher's Answer: I enjoy playing golf and fishing. And I love hunting. I got my first wild turkey this year.

A world-champion cowboy rode his horse along US 68 through Nicholas County last Tuesday, and even though he's ridden over 11,000 kilometers on-stay since last April, he was still sitting pretty tall in the saddle.

Erza Cooley is riding across the world, that's right, the world, to bring awareness to, and raise money for, the National Children's Cancer Society.

Erza says he has enjoyed his Kentucky experience, but had some unfortunate incidents along the way.
