LETTERS

We could have many things, but we need people who want it and who will help bring it here.
Another issue I am sick of is illegal immigrants.

War is terrible, and it's a shame so many troops have died, but believe me, if we don't win this war on terror, we'll all die.
Freedom doesn't come free. We won the Revolutionary War and became a country, won the Civil War and united our country.

Next year we have a presidential election coming up, and I will discuss that next year, but all I can say right now is if Hillary Clinton becomes president, we are all in big trouble.
Can you imagine having her in charge of the country, especially in a time of war? It's like a bad dream, and it would be America's worst, care if you are a Democrat

These are just a few things I needed to say, and I will give the record on Hillary next year because I am going to write another letter explaining all about Hillary and her Socialist record and plans for America. It's scary.
It's almost Halloween, so I don't want to scare you too much at this time of year, but please vote Fletcher in November, let's not GAM-BLE on Kentucky's future!

Editor,

Fourteen states including Texas and Florida have already abolished the office of State Treasurer. The reason... modern technology and the world of computer banking have made the office obsolete.

you select her as your next (and last) state treasurer will immediately begin the process of dismantling that useless office.
Please understand something - it's not about whether you want to abolish the office, or whether you're going to abolish the office - that's a done deal. The issue here is whether you want to do it now by voting Ronnie D. Blair Paintsville, KY

Dr. Derek Clarke delivers 1000th baby

Dr. Derek Clarke loves birth days. In fact he recently delivered his 1,000th baby, Nathaniel Goldie, born Aug. 31, to Jeff and Marrired Goldey in the new Elizabeth Bailey Women's Center at Harrison Memorial Hospital.

and surrounding counties for their continued support." Dr. Clarke credits the forward-thinking HMMH Board of Directors, who saw the need for expansion of the hospital and obstetrical department. "As a result, we now have the Elizabeth Bailey Women's Center that rivals any large teaching hospital to accommodate OB patients. While patients at large hospitals may feel like just a number, our patients experience the best in OB facilities and are cared for by highly-trained and dedicated nurses. Our facility also allows the patient to have her baby close to home and enables a family member to stay in the room. It truly is a huge plus for our community."

Dr. Clarke is married to Doreen Wisener, and they have three young children: Brandon, Lauren and Kathleen Clarke. Dr. Clarke and Doreen are actively involved in various community projects and are long-time supporters of the Born to Run Hospital Fund and various community athletic teams and schools. They enjoy community memberships in the Harrison County Board of Health, the Harrison County Hospice Foundation and the Harrison County Community Foundation.

Dr. Clarke presents a gift to Jeff and Marrired Goldey. Nathaniel Goldie, the baby, was the 1,000th baby delivered by Dr. Clarke in eight years.
