A cup of tea in high society atmosphere

With the opening of the Carlisle Doll Museum next to the Neal Welcome Center, the downtown area of Carlisle continues to expand its offerings to visitors, from near and far. Cory Thyme has opened to serve patrons tea and light dining fare. Above left, Jo Lynn Garrett, left, Libby Garrett, left, Cory Thyme, right, are served tea and lunch by cafe operator Masako Stone, who along with her husband Clint own and operate the cafe as part of the museum's offerings.
