Cofer upbeat about drills

Nicholas County High School boys' basketball coach Michael Cofer wasted little time in getting his team in the gym for pre-season practice. The Bluejackets basketball coach has been pleased with the last couple weeks of pre-season practice. "So far, the pre-season practices are going very well the players are working extremely hard, and we are looking forward to the upcoming season," said Cofer. "Although we will be low in numbers this year, I think it will be a great opportunity for the younger players to get some valuable playing experience." This year's team will be a little bit different from last year, we are going to try to be more patient on offense and defensively we will have to do a better job blocking out." The Nicholas County High boys' basketball program's pre-season scrimmages start Nov. 16 at 7 p.m. This year, Jacket Madness will include the Lady Jacket girls' basketball team along with the boys' team. "It will be great time for the community to come out and see the 2007 Blue Jacket team in action. We will be giving away 400 T-shirts and invite everyone to attend our 'On Nov. 17, Nicholas County's boys will travel to Bath County for their first of fiscal scrimmage. Then, on Nov. 20, Nicholas County will host KSD before opening the season on the road against Pendleton County.
