year's jail bill paid," Staci said. "It's not paid yet." Wanda Dotson said flatly.

The Blackberry Festival was the only topic of dis-sentiment discussed during last week's Nicholas County Fiscal Court meeting.

Some of the comments were getting from judges are very encouraging. They said to a General Chairman.

He and court members said they believed however that an increase in revenue had to be attained for the general fund to stay afloat next year.

The election is over," Alan Clay Stone said. "People tell you who they want for Judge and for Magistrate."

Former Magistrate Billy Dwyer asked court members if there were any other considerations besides increasing the property tax rate.

"I recommend we set it at 12.8," Tinker said noting that was a 3 percent increase over last year's real estate tax rate for the county.
