Lady jackets have strong season start Bluejackets beat Bourbon

The Lady Jackets Softball Team is off to a very strong season under the leadership of their seniors and solid team play.

The Lady Jackets won a double-header March 29 at the second game.

The victories came the day after the Lady Jackets defeated a strong Menlo County Team 8-3.

Both victories came on the road and Head Coach Betty Bretz expressed praise for the leadership and dedication his team players are demonstrating.

"The younger girls respect the seniors and when they see one of the seniors alding or giving an extra effort they come to expect that that is what they need to do also."

Bretz believes he had the strongest and best seniors in the state.

"I wouldn't trade for anyone else's seniors," he said following the victories.

Bretz has good reason to be proud of his seniors and the rest of the team.

They are an outstanding group of athletes who play the game as a team and compliment each other on and off the field.

With strong action on the mound coming from Shelby Brown, who pitched five perfect innings against St. Pat, in the first game and had nine strikeouts, including striking out six of the last seven batters, and she also pitched a winner in the second game.

Brown struck out seven against Menlo County the day before.

Offensively, the Lady Jackets are unstoppable.

Hulle Bretz, Ashley Bromagen, Patrea Mitchell, Jessica Gilkerson, Morgan Kelly, Shelby Sosby, C.C. Humphries and Patrea Mitchell have been ripping hard line drives each game.

"This is the kind of hitting we need to be successful," Bretz said while complimenting the solid offense and defense of the team.

Bretz said Bromagen, Gilkerson and Shelby Sosby were playing "very well" defensively.

The team is used to winning after a magnificent season last year, and they conduct themselves accordingly. The ease with which the team interacts is relaxed, but in a confident way.

The Lady Jackets are scheduled to play Harrison County April 9 away, Sycamore April 9, also away and Paris the next day, also away.

The team travels to Lexington on April 11 and 12 for the Lexington Catholic Invitational and play Bracken County April 14 away. They finally return home April 16 to play Bourbon County the day after the play Pendleton County away.

The Nicholas County Blue Jacket Baseball Team has endured several rainouts, but they've played strong when they've had the chance, and downed a tough Bourbon County Team Monday night in Paris.

The Lady Jackets are scheduled to play Harrison County April 9 away, Sycamore April 9, also away and Paris the next day, also away.

The team travels to Lexington on April 11 and 12 for the Lexington Catholic Invitational and play Bracken County April 14 away. They finally return home April 16 to play Bourbon County the day after the play Pendleton County away.

Alex Florence and Jonathon Mattox scored in the 7th with Michael Rea scoring the go ahead run.

Florence and Mynear have also seen some progress on the mound for the Jackets but Sims says the wet weather has been hard to adjust to.

"We just seem to have a hard time with consistency because of the rain during the game. We've had five games rained out so far this year."
