Mercury Memories

The Saltwell United Methodist Women had their monthly meeting, Monday night at the church. Twelve members attended. The meeting was called to order and devotional was given and Dorothy Jones Kelly had prayer. The program was given by two ladies from the 'Nashua Mission' in Lexington. They shared many interesting and informative things about what they do in mission for those in need. The group had 65 sick visits and charities reported. The project for this month was bringing items for the nursing home. The Saltwell Church served food after the funeral of Stella Hancy Campbell. Last month's lesson was taught on April 14. Elizabeth Elington had the devotion at the home of Linda Laville.

25 years ago April 17, 1983 Four precincts will vote on the wet-dry issue in Nicholas County on Saturday. After numerous lawsuits, counter-suits, appeals and other less formal arguments, four precincts across Nicholas County will vote Saturday on whether to allow the sale of alcoholic beverages. The Mayor's Office, Engine House, Mathias and City Building. The issue is already being sold at two locations at the Myer's precinct, which voted last December to go wet. The annual open house at the Nicholas County High School will be held April 19, from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., according to principal David McMillan. A Farmer's Day Ap-

25 years ago April 17, 1988 The summer camp of Everett M. Smith of Parkersburg was held at the Myer's Hill on Sunday evening, according to Deputy Sheriff Bill Collins. DuBert Ring, 17, son of Clark Ring, accidentally shot himself in the leg while fishing on Somerseth Creek near East Union Sunday afternoon. The Nicholas County Fish and Game club will sponsor a two-day wild goose hunt and auction at the club grounds on the Hickory Ridge Road, three miles from the entrance on April 18 and 19. "We pay the toll of 42 cents a pound from wild and you also get a government incentive pay. Bring your pool to Florence Park, phone 572, Cynthia, Ky. Call Veech Delaney in Carlisle for help." Shop at C&G Footwear supermarkets where a 15-lb bag of russet potatoes are only $1.99, and green cabbage is only 19 cents a pound.

26 years ago April 14, 1932 Rev. W. E. Sklarpe, pastor of the Baptist Church in Mt. Olivet is in the Robertson County Jail on a federal charge of conspiracy with the theft of an automobile in Indiana. Officials say there are other federal charges against Sklarpe. Allen How of Jailer Will Owens was given the option of spending 30 days in jail or one year out of the county by Police Judge Herold Monday. Young Owens, apparently crazed with alcohol, threw his family from the jail Sunday with a butcher knife. Several hundred people visited Herold's Garage in Carlisle to inspect the new Ford V-8 on display over the weekend. Mr. J. Tureman, owner of Tureman Pharmacy, discovered last week an old bill of sale for goods from the building that dated to Nov. 29, 1917. The city of Carlisle was established in 1916.
