chronic pelvic pain/interstitial cystitis

GERALD HARPEL, M.D. F.A.C.O.G., F.A.C.S.

Frequent, sometimes painful urination. The urge to urinate, even after relieving the bladder. Pain during or following sexual intercourse. Pain a week prior to menstruation. Or just general pelvic and abdominal discomfort. If any of these symptoms ring true for you, you may be suffering from a condition known as interstitial cystitis which can also mimic the symptoms of urinary tract infections.

Interstitial cystitis is a long-term inflammation of the bladder wall. The mucous lining which protects that wall becomes damaged, allowing irritating substances in the urine to aggravate the surface. And while the symptoms may sound like bad news for the nearly nine million U.S. women who share this condition, there is good news in sight. Interstitial cystitis is treatable, and there's hope right here in Cynthiana.

Dr. Gerald Harpel, an OB/GYN with 30 years experience, heads the certified Interstitial Cystitis Center at Just For Women OB/GYN. Through medication options, changes in diet and exercise, bladder training, and even surgery, Dr. Hirpel can provide much needed relief. He is an Associate Clinical Professor of OB/GYN at the University of Kentucky College of Medicine, a Fellow of the American College of Obstetrics/Gynecology and a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons. He has performed 8,000+ surgeries.

For information or a consultation regarding chronic pelvic pain and interstitial cystitis (IC), contact Just For Women OB/GYN today at 859.234.5555

Honduran man drowns

By Charles Mattox
News Editor
charles@thecarlislemercury.com

Harrison County officials say a 25-year-old Honduras man drowned Thursday afternoon while fishing with friends on a farm lake near Peak Lane.

The name of the deceased has not been released.

"Alcohol was involved," a press release issued by Harrison County Sheriff Bruce Hampton's Office states in part while describing how four Hispanic males went fishing at the lake and one later stripped off most of his clothing and went around the lake and jumped in to swim back to his friends.

He never made it.

Harrison officials are currently awaiting autopsy results but say at this time they believe the death was a result of an accidental drowning.

Road to close

Crews with the Kentucky Department of Highways in Nicholas County will replace a drainage pipe under KY 3315 (Cassidy Creek Road, about 100 feet south of Locust Grove Road on Friday, April 21.

Motorists are asked to begin at 8:30 a.m. and will continue until about 3 p.m. During this time, the roadway will be closed to all traffic at the work site. A marked detour will not be posted, however motorists may reroute along KY 32, KY 36 and KY 928.

In case of inclement weather, the work and closure will be rescheduled for the same hours on Monday, April 21.

Work is scheduled to begin at 8:30 a.m. and will continue until about 3 p.m. During this time, the roadway will be closed to all traffic at the work site. A marked detour

City officials discuss deadbeats

By Charles Mattox
News Editor

Carlisle city officials discussed imposing a utility deposit fee during the March 10 meeting after Mayor Ronnie Clark announced the loss of approximately $31,000 to the city as a result of homeowners and renters moving away without paying their utility bills.

"Our customers are simply moving off while owing us more than what their deposit is," he said during a March 10 City Council meeting. "We've had 31 home-owning utility customers that have moved away and owed a total over $4,000."

Council members took heed and commented.

"We don't want to end up penalizing our good customers," Council member Tommy Crawford said, to which others quickly agreed.

Mayor Clark said he would be seeking input into how to solve the problem and suggested an increase in utility deposits might be in order in the near future.

"I'm for enacting it now," Councilman Jerry Hall said.

The discussion continued briefly with no specific action being taken.

Clark also discussed progress with the E911 mapping project and problems with city residents sitting trash on the streets overt he weekend.

Clark said he would have a recommendation for council members to consider regarding the utility deposit dilemma during the April 14 Carlisle City Council meeting.
