Three Cheers for Chicken

FAMILY FEATURES

When it comes to eating meat, Americans love chicken! Almost one-third of the nation's meat consumption is chicken. In fact, the estimated U.S. per capita consumption of chicken in 2007 was 90.6 pounds!

Not only is chicken delicious and affordable, it is versatile — lending itself to all kinds of dishes. However, it can be a real challenge to transform chicken into new and creative meals that will please the whole family. With a little inspiration and a few staple ingredients found in your refrigerator or pantry, you can create a variety of tasty and flavorful dishes in minutes.

Campbell's Kitchen shares their favorite chicken recipes that are anything but ordinary.

A pairing of orange juice and chicken makes Citrus Chicken and Rice an unexpected delight. Garnished with sautéed orange slices, it's as pretty as it is pleasing to the palate. Mediterranean Chicken, made with sun-dried tomatoes, tangy capers and Nicoise olives, benefits from a base of Swanson Chicken Broth for added flavor and creates a zesty sauce for chicken.

With a blend of lemon juice, fresh parsley and paprika, Chicken in Savory Lemon Sauce delivers an exceptional flavor combination that will kick-start your taste buds. For a rich and creamy mouth-watering experience, try Chicken and Broccoli Alfredo, which combines Campbell's Cream of Mushroom Soup with tender broccoli flowerets, linguine and Parmesan cheese.
