Courthouse Square Arts Guild

Christmas memories come to everyone this time of year. It doesn't matter how far from home you traveled or the circumstances of you life; the past is there, hidden in a small closet of your mind. Whether it was a Christmas at your grandparents or the love you felt while holding your beautiful baby while it sleeps. The warm touch of your loving pet as you play in the snow or the soft kiss of mom when you were getting tucked into bed on a cold winters night. Remember the first time Dad read the book, "The Night Before Christmas" to you as a child. Remember all the excitement of Santa, the reindeer, and the elves that kept you awake all night and you emerged from you nice warm bed at 5:00a.m. to see what the jolly ole elf brought you while you slept. I wish each and every one of you home for Christmas, with the people that made all these memories.

However, sometimes due to the circumstances in some of our lives, we can't be with our family. However, we never stop loving them and missing our time together.

The other day I quite accidentally ran into some beautiful artwork that was done on envelopes, notebook paper and misc. kinds of paper that most artist would have never thought of creating a piece of art. Each and every piece of this artwork was folded gingerly into a pastel yellow tissue paper for its protection. It was cherished and loved by a mother. A son that very much loved his mother created it. The story that I know is quite stirring and is perfect for this season.

Quentin Leroy Schlafer was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on April 27, 1940 to Vernon Leroy and Trella Catherine Snapp Schlafer. When Quentin grew up he loved horses and became a jockey. During different periods of his life he was away from home for extended periods of time. Away from his loving mother and a little furry dog name Muffin.

During this time he would make his mother beautiful cards of flowers, birds, and many different type of animals. Most of the cards were simply drawn with an ink pen or graphite pencil of no special quality. But you can be assured the special quality was there, especially to the loving mother that received them.

Not only was the drawing lovely but the message was as beautiful as the drawings. For example of one of his cards;

Dear Mother,
For Mother's Day,
I send you my thoughts
On Butterfly wing's
I send you my wishes
On a rainbow.
And most of all, rose's
To carry my love.
Happy Mothers's Day
Love and Respect.
Your son Quentin

This great artist and poet knew the love of a wonder mother, the beauty of the open land and the speed of the wind as you ride a beautiful thoroughbred. But he also knew the loneliness and the sadness that life could bring.

Quentin Leroy Schlafer died on April 18, 2003 in Lexington Kentucky where he was hit by a car. He was retired jockey and had not accomplished great monetary wealth. But all in all he was very rich. The Lord gave him a wonderful talent for writing and drawing, a mother that gave unconditional love.

As we pass though this Holy Season, the Members of the Courthouse Square Arts Guild wish you peace of mind and love of friends and family. The amount of money you spend or the size of the gifts doesn't make memories. Giving of yourself, your time and your love makes the season. Just remember the Father that gave us his only son to save us from death and the virgin mother of that child who showed great love for the child. An as always ART IS A WAY, NOT A THING. Merry Christamas!

TRIVIA ANSWERS FOR NOVEMBER: (1) A couple of Bing's hit Christmas songs were "Silent Night" and "Do You Hear What I Hear?" (2) "White Christmas" starred Bing, Rosemary and Danny Kay

TRIVIA FOR DECEMBER: Truth or Consequences was radio's most outrageous quiz program and aired from March 23, 1940 through September 12,1956. The program was based on the old parlor game of forfeit and subjected failed contestant to bizarre indignities and punishments. However on 12/20/47 a gala Christmas party features Christmas seals and the radio reunion of a paralyzed G.I in California with his Hometown friends in Tennessee. Name the creator/host of this golden old radio program?

The Moorefield Homemakers met Dec 4th at the home of Wanda Mathes for their Christmas Program. Wanda's home was beautifully decorated for the holidays.

Barbara Biddle planned the Christmas program with members reading parts. Kathy Murrell assisted the hostess serving delicious refreshments followed by a gift exchange. Next meeting will be Jan. 8th at the home of Lois Hamm.

Dear Santa - My name is Chad Fugate. Mammaw and Pappaw, J. B. and Charity Griffith, say I have been a really good boy this year. They would probably say that even if I wasn't, but I really was. I would like to have an X-Box, some games, videos, and some surprises. Remember, I love the Wildcats! Please bring my little sister, Sarah, some things she wants. Thanks for the gifts last year. Love, Chad

Dear Santa - My name is Caden Rice. I'll get straight to the point. Mammaw Charity and Pappaw J. B. Griffith can't buy me everything I want, so I'd like for you to bring me some toys and surprises. I'd especially like some Little People and sports toys. I will be a good boy NEXT YEAR if you bring me lots of nice toys this year. I am still little and did not know the rules about being good all year. Ooops! My bad. Sorry, Santa. Love, Caden

Dear Santa - My name is Sarah Fugate. I have spunk but that doesn't mean I haven't been a good girl this year. Would you please bring me an Easy-Bake oven! I am trying to teach my grandma, Charity Griffith, how to cook! She and my pappaw, J. B., eat out too much. Also I would like a Biscuit. Not the kind you put in the oven, Santa, but the little toy dog.

I love surprises, Santa, so please bring me some. I'll bake you cookies in my Easy Bake Oven when you come to my house next year. Love, Sarah

Dear Santa - My name is McKenna Charity Rice. My Poppaw and Mammaw (J.B. and Charity Griffith) live in Carlisle, I live in Florida. My mamma, Johnya Rice, says I've been a good girl this year. Would you please bring me a robot dinosaur, twin babies, Pet Shop playhouse, and a few surprises? Don't forget to bring my little Brother, Caden, something, too. Just make sure you put a tag on my dinosaur so Caden will know it is just for me! Sidney and Saige have been good girls, too, so please remember to bring them something nice.

Love, McKenna

Jackets fall to Deming

Nicholas County hung with Deming for the first three quarters Friday night. Visiting Deming, a team ranked in the Preseason 10th Region Top 10 poll, used a 34-15 fourth quarter run to get past the Jackets. Deming prevailed thanks to the late push, defeating the Jackets 75-54 in a key 38th District boys' basketball matchup.

Kyle Campbell had another high-scoring effort for Nicholas County, finishing with a game-high 33 points. Campbell was the lone Nicholas

County player to reach double figures in the scoring column. Darius

Workman and Camron Dale added five points apiece for the Jackets. D.R.

Purvis scored four points and Tyler Hunt added three host Nicholas County.

Luke King led Deming to the win, scoring a team-high 22 points. Nathan Mitchell followed with 21 points for the Devils. Three Deming players reached double figures in the scoring column. Kyle King was another productive performer for Deming as he exited the district contest with 16 points.

As part of a balanced offensive output, Garth Graus and Calvin Schalch scored five points apiece for the Devils. Jonathan Caldwell netted four points and Nathan Clifford chipped in two for the Deming boys' basketball team.

Deming edged Nicholas County 10-9 in the opening quarter. In a game that was close throughout, Deming carried a slim 27-24 lead into the intermission.

Nicholas County carved into the Deming lead in the second half. Outscoring the Devils 15-14 in the third quarter. Saving its best for last, Deming erupted for the 34 points in the final period.

Deming, which remained undefeated following the win, improved to 5-0. The Devils – in addition to the victory over Nicholas County – own wins over Augusta, Bourbon County, St. Patrick and Bracken County.

Deming also prevailed in the junior varsity matchup between the two boys' high school basketball programs.

Dylon Fryman and Cody Fryman rounded out the Nicholas County scoring with two points apiece.

The Jackets dropped to 1-5 following the loss.

Nicholas County is scheduled to visit Deming in a return game Jan. 13.

Lady Jackets outlast Deming in Bath tourney

Mitchell records second straight double-double

OWINGSVILLE – Earlier in the 2008-09 season – Dec. 13 to be exact – Deming edged Nicholas County 68-63 in an all-important 38th District girls' basketball matchup. On Friday (Dec. 19) – less than one week later – the two teams met up again. Deming and Nicholas County faced off Friday in the Lady Cat Classic at Bath County. This time, Nicholas County was not to be denied the win. Nicholas County steadily built an early lead over Deming and managed to hold off the Lady Devils late. The Lady Jackets outscored

Deming 14-9 in the fourth quarter, winning 51-48.

Brittanie Sosby and Petrea Mitchell led Nicholas County in scoring with 19 points apiece. The two Nicholas County teammates shared game-high scoring honors.

For the second straight game, Mitchell registered a double-double. She had 16 rebounds to go along with her 19 points.

Mitchell scored 13 points and grabbed 13 rebounds in an opening round matchup versus Fairview Thursday. In a very competitive matchup, Fairview edged Nicholas County 57-55 in the opening round.

Jessica Gilkerson and Reesa Martin scored three points apiece for the Lady Jackets. Shelby Sosby added two points in Nicholas County's winning effort.

Nicholas County edged Deming 11-9 in the opening quarter and never allowed the Lady Devils to score more than 14 points in any one period. The Lady Jackets entered halftime out in front 26-20.

Michelle Smith and Kelsey Carmack led Deming with 12 points apiece.

Jessica Hester followed with 11 points for the Deming team. Felicia Fryman scored six points, Chelsea Fryman collected four and Stephanie Isaac added three for the Lady Devils.

Nicholas County improved to 3-3, evening its record, after posting the win. Deming dropped to 3-3 after suffering the setback.
