GENERAL NEWS

WOMAN

According to family members the shot from a small caliber handgun struck White a glancing wound on her side and did not penetrate any vital organs.

Carlisle Chief of Police William Denton arrived on scene later joined at the scene by Veterans Kentucky State Police Detective Clinton Graves, who is being assisted in the investigation by Carlisle Police officers, KSP Troopers Dennis Mayberry and Dennis Ison, according to Chief Denton.

City firefighters battled the blaze and sought assistance from their fellow Nicholas County firefighters who were dispatched approximately one half an hour later.

"They were a big help," Jefferson said. "They were a real big help."

Jefferson narrowly escaped serious injury while battling the blaze as the floor collapsed beneath him.

"It was rough," he said of conditions surrounding the inferno that raged around him as he tumbled through the floor.

"I managed to pull myself up and I was all right. Neither myself, nor any other firefighters were injured. The house is a total loss and only a shell of a home remains. Mrs. White lost everything in the home."

Kentucky State Police Arsen Investigator Curtis Combs joined the investigation Tuesday morning and was joined at the scene by Scott County Battalion Fire Chief James Kanany and his Black Lab Striker as part of the arson investigation.

"Having the dog helped us with another piece of the puzzle," Combs said.

Police are otherwise being cautiously tight lipped about the intruders and would be killed.

When Chief Denton was asked if he had suspects he quickly replied "No comment."

When asked if he had interrogated anyone in connection with the heinous crime he likewise replied "No comment."

Detective Graves said later in the afternoon that "evidence had been recovered that will be very helpful in solving the crime."

Detective Combs also commented briefly on the case and Graves consulted together.

"I have sufficient evidence to

Our family would like to thank everyone for the prayers, calls, cards and support given us during the past year and a half as Steve fought his courageous battle with cancer. We have been overwhelmed by the outpouring of love and compassion. We would also like to thank all those who participated in the organization, serving and donations of food to make the meal after his cemetery service so special. Your kindness will be remembered always. Carlisle is truly the little town with a big heart and it lives up to its motto: May God bless each and everyone of you.

Happy Birthday Leap Day Baby!

Being a leap day baby can be such a bore, when it comes to birthdays, he's only had 4. Time has passed as we have all seen on February 29th, Cameron Dale will be 10!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Mama, Papa, Courtney and Wayson

The family of Virginia Lawrence Vice would like to express our appreciation and gratitude to everyone who showed their condolences to the family and for the prayers, visits, food, cards and flowers.

We will always remember your kindness. Your personal touches were a blessing, and we thank God for such wonderful friends.

Thanks to the Yellow Team of Hospice of the Bluegrass in Cynthiana, KY.

May God bless each and every one of you.

-Allie Vice, Sr. and Family

Thank everyone for your kindness. It was greatly appreciated during the loss of our home. May everyone be blessed with happiness for the thoughtful things. Thanks to the people at Prime Finish for the shower and things they did. We would also like to thank Joe, David, Jay, Gary and Steven Evans for their help and equipment. We would also like to thank the families of John Evans, Little Sherman Evans, and Jason Evans for their part in getting our home back. Also, Mark Hughes and the Fire Department for their quick run. May God bless each and everyone.

-Sherman and Mary Evans
