Mayville author Sam Beved visited the Nicholas County Library for a book signing. His book is entitled "Benny's Story: Opening Day and Other Tales." Jaden Willoughby, 12, the first responder on the scene, was injured in the accident when he was thrown from an ATV during a snowstorm. Willoughby was not wearing a helmet and his head struck a fence post during the accident, according to Deputy Sheriff Bonnie Buckler, the first responder on the scene. Willoughby was taken by ambulance to the Nicholas County Hospital and later airlifted to the University of Kentucky Medical Center where he remained in serious but stable condition following surgery to relieve pressure from a blood clot forming on his brain. The members of the Nicholas County Girls' Basketball Team were honored during their annual banquet. The ladies represented Nicholas County for the second year in a row with a trip to the Regional Tourney under the guidance of Head Coach Barry Bretz and assistant Coach Kim Blake. Three seniors, Tara Wilson, Tiffany Wilson and Amanda Hamilton, were honored for their dedication to the program and excellence on the court. Junior Corey Holte Bretz was also honored with three awards for leading the team with assists, steals and rebounds. C.C. Humphries was also honored with having the lowest turnovers averaging less than one per game. The community mourns the loss of Claudia Ann Wasson Tineher, Elizabeth Ann Tineher and "Lizette" Ratliff, Melvin Owens McKee, Roy Holmes "Sherry" Myers, Virgil Clay Ritchie, Sr., Pearl Elizabeth Davis, Thomas Howard Henley, Ben "Sonny" Rogers, Farid Nelson Dailey, Lona Bates Linville, Eugene McCarly Westfall, Rowena Clarke Hughes, Dorothy L. Barnett.

flattened tires on the Bobcat. There may be a connection with this incident and the vandalism of the cemetery. Weaver and other law enforcement officers inspected the area of NCHS between where the Bobcat was parked and the adjacent cemetery property where the vandalism occurred. Tires were also flattened on one vehicle at the Nicholas County School Board Office had been opened and then an egg smashed against the front of the interior door. "I haven't noticed any broken windows or anything else," Superintendent of Nicholas County Schools Greg Reid said as he inspected the campus. Carlisle Police Officer Brad Weaver noted damage to a Bobcat construction vehicle parked near the rear of the NCHS girls' softball field. "This looks like a puncture mark for sure," Weaver said when inspecting one of two
