It is known that Boone also had four beaver traps with him...

Boone's foraging trips took him through present-day Nicholas, Robertson, Bath and Fleming counties...

Captain Boone who was born Nov. 2, 1734, in Pennsylvania...

And although Boone was remarkably fleet in his younger days...

could have been as young as 16 at the time...

During the raid he had been shot in the left ankle and the lead musket ball had shattered the bone...

But the Shawnee were not done with Boone or his men...

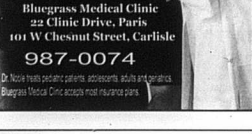

James Calloway, brother of fellow salt maker...

Boone himself was a very painful gunshot wound...
