As much as I have always heard Marilyn talk about being a romantic, this Christmas was just about as romantic as I have ever seen her.

When we met and became engaged, I wore rings for many years. It was originally a brushed finish. Marilyn's surprise was when all of the other presents were given out.

I was a pretty big fellow when we first met and married. My ring was a 12 plus.

Over the years as I got even bigger I guess in her brief moments of mo-

I hope you are having a great week. It is so amazing to watch one baby interact with another.

When we were at the home she loved Sadio so much she loved to give her hugs and kisses.

It is just amazing to see how much one baby can identify with others. It is so precious to watch them.

Analise also loves Evan. She liked to give him hugs and kisses too. That is what I'm trying to say I guess.

The babies really are getting more and more adorable every day.

Analise and Antonio are also very fond of Mackenzie.

He was lifting the towel over his face and then pulling it down. They were playing peek-a-boo together.

They are also great at getting into trouble together. Saturday morning, Ben was letting me sleep in as the previous week had been horrible and I was exhausted.
