The Bartterville United Methodist Church held Bible School on Saturday, June 28. They had 70 people including teachers. They had Bible Study, Arts and Crafts, and a pot-luck with Hamburgers, hot dogs and ice cream cones.

Our community extends sympathy to the family of Mildred Green. She passed away on July 3rd at Nicholas County Hospital.

Turner Moreland returned to his home in Carlisle after spending a few days in Bourbon County hospital the past week.

Rev. Troy Miller pastor of the Bartterville Church was in Harrison Memorial Hospital part of last week.

The L30 service at the Johnson Mathers Health Care was given by Rev. Howard Livingood Sunday, Mrs. Wanda Small led the group singing. The pianist was Ramona George. Special singing was by Ronnie and Wanda Stephens, Pave Letcher, Martha Sidles, and Mrs. Myrae. A large group of residents attended the service. Ms. Mary Emma Patton who is usually a visitor was a patient Sunday and for a few more days. I talked with Mr. Donald Jenkins of the Rose Hill Community, whose wife is a patient of Johnson Mathers Health Care now, says she and her husband are very devoted to each other and was an inspiration to this night. The last activity of this is the fireworks which were so very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ockerman entertained with a cookout on the 4th of July. Steve's friends from Square D, were held used to square D, where he used to work. All of the family were there and many friends but I think the "Star" was 1 year old, Kyle Ockerman, on a note from his granddaughters.

als and their families. "Our goal this year is to raise $25,000," Sibert said. "We've had a very good year thus far."

Members banded together following an event two years ago called simply "Isaac's Ride," a horse ride benefit for Isaac Sexton.

"If it wasn't for the work of Isaac's grandfather Ricky Willoughby, we probably would never have started," Sibert said while discussing how the organization was initially formed. "There are a lot of smiles a lot of tears that come with work like this, but it is very, very rewarding work."

According to Sibert, the group is currently in the process of obtaining a 501(c)(3) status, which may help the group access certain state and federal grants.

"County Attorney Dawn Letcher has been helping us with the paperwork and we are grateful," Sibert said. "We're fortunate to live in a community like Nicholas County and like Carlisle. Carlisle truly is the 'little town with the big heart' just like the slogan says."

Sibert said all of the Carving Hearts members have worked tirelessly and some have even come from out of the county and state to help.

"Bonnie Marshall and Peggy Edmond from Fleming County have been great supporters and have offered a lot of help and volunteerism," Sibert said. "Gary Bailey helped with our motorcycle ride benefit and Timmy Brady is always helping."

Caring Hearts of Nicholas County will soon be drawing the winning raffle ticket for a 2007 Yamaha 650 V38R motorcycle. They also sell T-shirts and will be holding fundraising events in the future including a softball tournament this August and a dance this October.

To volunteer, make a donation, purchase a chance to win a great motorcycle, or to find out how you can make a difference for a local special needs individual or family, call Sibert at 289-2849. All it takes is a caring heart to join this uplifting organization.
