OPINION

"You get less of what you tax," he said. "If you tax more labor, you get less labor. If you tax more profit, you get less profit."

Jim Waters is the director of policy and communications for the Bluegrass Institute...

CONSERVATIVE

The good news: Kentucky voted for themselves a few years ago. They hid this wasteful gem deep inside the GSA...

Rep. Charles Rangel Governor Steve Beshear of New York, himself no friend to the taxpayer, leases a Cadillac Deville for $777 per month. When asked about the program, he told CBS news "my constituents appreciate it."

Congressman Gregory Meeks leases a Lexus LS460 for $999 per month and Representative Ed Towns leases a Lincoln for $715 per month.

In all, we know of at least 150 Congressmen who are taking advantage of the program; 72 of which are Republicans and 64 are Democrats.

ing used Yugos. And we'll throw in a compass and tell them to come back when they've found the solution to our education problem.

GREEN

Continued from Page 4 That's hardly being fiscally conservative, Senator. That's playing politics by postponing the damage your policies will cause for our generation...

McConnell also supported borrowing billions of dollars to keep the war going. You aren't fiscally conservative, Senator. You blindly follow
