Nicholas County baseball advances to regional semifinals

By Brad Lauer brad@batsonnewoutlook.com

Nicholas County completed its baseball season last Thursday night after making back-to-back appearances in the 10th Region Tournament for the first time since the 1999 and 2000 campaigns...

The Bluejackets opened the tournament with a 12-8 eighth-inning victory over rival Mason County on May 20. However, the run came at an end at the hands of Scott, 11-2, three days later in Cynthiana...

Nicholas County (12-16) split its regular-season meetings with Mason County (13-19), but won the game that counted the most...

The Bluejackets tied the score at 7-7 with a run in the top of the fifth inning...

Our pitcher, Jordan Myrner, settled in and really battled, Sims said...

Nicholas County rapped off six hits, including a 4-for-4 performance at the plate from Cody Fryman...

Ben Layne prepares to make contact with the ball in the semifinals against Scott...

The Bluejackets could not carry the success over to their semifinal game with Scott. The team's pitching started to struggle in the fourth and fifth innings...

Pitcher Jordan Myrner did the rest, holding the Red Sox to a single run in the bottom of the inning to secure the win...

Nicholas County rapped off six hits, including a 4-for-4 performance at the plate from Cody Fryman...

Ben Layne prepares to make contact with the ball in the semifinals against Scott...

Things continued to sour for coach Sims' bunch as Scott added two runs apiece in the fourth and fifth innings...

THOUGHTS

There is a pattern in this story. If you go back to Noah's life this is what you find...

There is an important lesson here, you are never too late to be used by God!
